Pastor's Corner

By Rev. Edgar B. Brillantes

Next Sunday's Readings
Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time
First Reading Isaiah 22:19-23	Responsorial Psalm Psalm 138:1-3, 6, 8
Second Reading Romans 11:33-36	Gospel Matthew 16:13-20

First Reading: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

God invites all people to come and share in the promises made to Israel. Not only the Jewish people, but everyone is invited to keep the covenant and enter God's house, which is open not to a single tribe, but to all people. Isaiah's vision should be our vision for our churches: God's house is "a house of prayer for all peoples."

Second Reading: Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Paul continues his reflection on the Jewish people - his people. He knows that Christ is the source of salvation; and he knows that God's promises are "irrevocable." Not all accept Christ, or turn towards him; but God desires to "have mercy upon all." God's plan unfolds according to his will and not ours.

Gospel: Matthew 15:21-28

The theme of insiders and outsiders appears in all today's readings. In the Gospel, a Canaanite woman - an outsider, part of a nation who were long enemies of Jews - approaches Jesus to beg healing for her daughter. The disciples try to send her away, but she stubbornly refuses to go. Even when Jesus tells her that he has come for Israel only, she keeps asking for what she needs, and Jesus grants it. God's love and Christ's compassion reach beyond our enemies and over our borders.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Dear Lord,

Thank you for giving me hope: hope for the growth of our Faith, hope for the promise for our future, and hope for the care for our community. You show me every day that all I am, and all I have, are gifts from You. Lord, my gifts are meant to be shared. Show me and help me to understand that others, perhaps unknown to me, depend on me for help. We ask you to bless my stewardship offering which is offered to You to fulfill the needs of many. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

We are inviting interested parishioners to join the group. At present, the members are reflecting on the US Bishops' pastoral document titled Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. Everyone feels that it is very enriching as they unveil new insights from the sharing. The committee is comprised by Marc Ulep as chairman, Vangie Bacani, Alvin Baron, Mark Correia, Fran Kovaloff, Condelita Pescador, Clementina Ceria-Ulep and Fr. Edgar.

Their next meeting is on Wednesday, September 13, at 6:00pm.

As disciples of Jesus Christ all of us have something to contribute. Each will do so by stewarding his or her gifts and talents, resources, time, and presence — within the faith community and beyond it — at home, work or school, the local city or town, and the world. Our role as stewardship leaders is to help people to recognize the grace and call of God in their lives and to respond to it in their daily decisions and actions. As the Bishops' letter offered: "Following Jesus is the work of a lifetime. At every step forward, one is challenged to go further in accepting and loving God's will" (SDR, 15). \(Leisa Anslinger, International Catholic Stewardship Council)*

MAHALO TO GOOD STEWARDS

Stewardship is responsible sharing of the gifts of time, talent and treasure that God has bestowed upon each one of us. This has been manifested by our dear parishioners in various forms:

*TECHNOLOGY INSTALLATION

❖ Last week, Jun Cortez worked for a number of days to install the gadget and cable for an extended range of the wifi so we can project in our church screen the launching of the new OLM website during our Masses this weekend. The installation will also help in showing to the community the catechetical videos and youtube programs that the Diocese is sending us.

❖ Before the Masses this weekend, the webmaster, Tita Calizar, will show us how to log into the new OLM website – ourladyofthemountkalihi.org. She had been working on it together with Anthony, her son, to launch it on time for the celebration of our Patroness' feast and Parish Anniversary. Mahalo to them all for sharing their expertise.

*GIFTS OF LOVE

❖ Big mahalo to our good neighbor and parishioner, Rosie Jacinto, who donated the amount of $2000.00 to help foot the cost of putting up the new concrete fence between the Convent and their residence.

❖ In gratitude for God's blessings, Kalolo Tuihalafatai and his family donated a tractor mower for use in the clean-up and maintenance of the parish cemetery. What a wonderful gift!

❖ The Locations Foundation donated $272.38 for the OLM Youth Ministry. The check was given thru Yvonne Tuihalafatai who is an employee of the Locations Company and a volunteer bookkeeper at OLM. We do appreciate their generous gift and kind services.

❖ Rey & Minda Teocson donated a box of shell leis for our use in honoring visitors as well as parishioners celebrating special occasions.

❖ We thank Sio Tuitupou for his regular delivery of freshly picked papaya fruits from his garden to the Rectory refectory. Much mahalo!

❖ There are also generous souls who are always happy and willing to share for our parish fellowship during the Patroness' feast and parish anniversary. We thank Tom & Becky DeCorte of the Outreach Ministry, Magdaleno & Cathy Sanchez of the Santo Nino Visayan Ministry, and Gloria Rodrigues of the Lector Ministry, for their cash donations. Marivic & Silver Palting offered a check for the flowers of the Blessed Lady on her feast day.

*MINISTERS & VOLUNTEERS – Our Parish has been blessed with such responsible stewards who serve and give without counting the cost and we keep praising and thanking God for them.

❖ M/M Jun & Nida Flores & M/M Eddie & Teresita Lucero have been tending with love and care the flower garden by the makai side of the Church.

❖ Clem Fontanilla mows the grasses and inspects the grounds before closing the gate at the end of the day.

*CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

*Our parish is always open and welcoming any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. You may submit your name at the parish office or contact our pastor. God bless and reward you abundantly.

❖RELIGIOUS ED PROGRAM❖

WELCOME TO THE FIRST DAY OF THE CATECHETICAL YEAR 2017-18.

As directed by the Diocese, the OPENING DAY OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL for the Year 2017-2018 is today, August 20. On this first day, there are no formal classes yet, but all children together with their parents are joining the celebration of the 147th Parish Anniversary starting with the Holy Mass at 8:30am, followed by a solemn procession to the grotto and fellowship for all at the parish hall.

REGISTRATION still goes on and forms are available in the bulletin holders. For those who are receiving the sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion, the Baptism Certificate is required. The celebration of the Sacraments of Confirmation and First Communion is set on May 20, 2018 which is the solemn Feast of Pentecost. First Reconciliation and Confessions is scheduled beforehand.

The catechists led by Sr. Clemence Mira, SPC and the Youth Ministry under Ropati Liua joined hands to implement the diocesan program of transitioning to the original order of celebrating the initiation sacraments. Team teaching will be part of the new structure. The role of the parents in the Christian formation of their children is also integrated in the program.

The identified programs for the Youth Ministry called EDGE and LIFE TEEN were ordered in both online and hard copy forms. Both programs cost $1,595.00 and we are most grateful to the generous benefactor who donated the amount. God truly loves a cheerful giver!

Let's continue to pray for our children and youths. We thank the loving services of our ever-caring catechists who mold their minds and hearts with the Christian values and prepare them well for the sacraments of First Reconciliation, Confirmation and First Communion. We laud the parents, grandparents and guardians who encourage their children to attend the Sunday School and Mass and act as primary catechists and concrete examples of living the Christian faith.

Impressed, her mother assured her, "Honey, if you asked God to help you behave, He will do that." "Oh," the child replied, "I didn't ask God to help me behave. I asked Him to help you put up with me."

CATHEDRAL RENEWAL CAMPAIGN

* Second Collection amount – $1,223.05

The special collection for the Cathedral Basilica of Our Lady of Peace Renewal Campaign was made in our parish last week. The 174-year-old Cathedral is in much need of restoration and, as the mother church of our Diocese, it is our collective responsibility to provide for the needed renovations as well as construction of a Reliquary Chapel for the veneration of the pride of our Catholic faith in Hawaii, Saint Damien and Saint Marianne. This is also part of the preparation for the celebration of the 175th Anniversary of the Cathedral's Dedication next year.

We do appreciate your generous stewardship. Mahalo nui loa!

DID YOU KNOW...

Confirmation is Not Us Confirming Our Faith

Reflections on the Original Order

Questions? kdeneve@rcchawaii.org

Sometimes Catholics approach Confirmation like a graduation, saying, "I made my Confirmation," as if it is something that they earned after completing X number of service hours or attending Y percentage of Confirmation classes. But, that is not what Confirmation means.

We the baptized do not "confirm" our faith in the sacrament of Confirmation. Rather, it is God who confirms us in the free gift of our faith: "He has put his seal on us and given us his Spirit in our hearts as a guarantee" (Ephesians 1:13, 4:30).

Pope Francis addressed this point in his general audience of Jan. 29, 2014: "Confirmation, like every sacrament, is not the work of men but of God, who cares for our lives in such a manner as to mold us in the image of his Son, to make us capable of loving like him. God does it by infusing in us his Holy Spirit, whose action pervades the whole person and his/her entire life."

Soon, seven-year-olds who were baptized as infants will be confirmed prior to receiving First Communion. (When this will happen depends on your parish plan.) God will perfect in them the grace received at Baptism, perfect in them the common priesthood of all the faithful (Catechism of the Catholic Church, Nos. 1305 and 1316).

CLERGY STUDY DAY

On August 25, Friday, the Priests and Deacons of the Diocese will gather at the St. Stephen Diocesan Center for the lecture and workshop on Self-Care of the Minister: Living a Balance Life presented by Tom Reid.

In his presentation, Reid provides tools for assessing and increasing self-knowledge and information on healthy self-care practices in a practical and easy-to-follow format.

Ministers are predisposed to take care of the needs of others, often while ignoring their own. But neglect of self-care can erode our effectiveness. Ultimately, our ministry is only as healthy as we are.

Tom's professional work experience includes: Leadership team for RENEW, Archdiocese of Seattle and coordinator of the Ministry to Priests program of continuing education and spiritual growth at the Center for Human Development, Notre Dame.
