147TH ANNIVERSARY: 1870 - 2017
"Celebrating As God's Family"

OCTOBER 13, 2017
CENTENNIAL 100TH ANNIVERSARY

THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY'S LAST APPARITION TO THE THREE CHILDREN: FRANCISCO, JACINTA & LUCIA IN FATIMA, PORTUGAL

We join the universal Church in honoring the Blessed Mother on the Centennial 100th Anniversary of her last apparition to the three children: Francisco, Jacinta and Lucia in Fatima, Portugal. Everyone is invited to celebrate the event with a votive Mass at in honor of Our Lady of Fatima at 6:30am. The Liturgy Committee and Ilocano Ministry are coordinating the praying of the public rosary with the image of the Lady of Fatima on Friday, October 13 at 12:00 noon at the front of the Church.

As a reminder Pope Francis has granted a "plenary indulgence of the jubilee" to the faithful who visit with devotion an image of Our Lady of Fatima solemnly displayed for public veneration in any sacred place during the days of the anniversary of the apparitions, and devotedly participate there in any celebration or prayer in honor of the Virgin Mary, pray the Our Father, recite the Credo and invoke Our Lady of Fatima.

To gain the plenary indulgence, the following usual conditions must be met: **sacramental confession*, with an intention to renounce all attachment to sin; **reception of Eucharistic Communion* and **prayer for the intentions of the Holy Father*, the Pope.

The reception of Penance and Holy Communion may be done within several days of the visit. If the conditions are not met, then the indulgence is partial.

Pastor

Rev. Adrian R. Gervacio
Pastor-Emeritus

"The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel." Isaiah 5:7

Next Sunday's Readings Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Isaiah 25:6-10

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 23:1-6

Second Reading
Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

Gospel
Matthew 22:1-14

First Reading: Isaiah 5:1-7

The song of the vineyard is today's First Reading. The friend who has a vineyard is the Lord and the Lord's vineyard is Israel. The Lord had done much for Israel, yet her people at times chose to distance themselves from God. Their fruit was wild grapes, not the crop of grapes the friend desired. Now the house of Israel faces the Lord's judgment.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Paul encourages the Philippians to make their requests known to God in prayer. Since they are able to petition God, the Philippians need to have no anxiety. God's peace in Christ Jesus will safeguard them. In addition, Paul lists the virtues to which Christ Jesus calls the Philippians: truth, honor, justice, purity, love, and graciousness. Whatever is praiseworthy is their calling. To live in this manner is to know the peace of God residing within us.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

This Sunday's Gospel reading is another parable and a continuous reading from where the parable of Last Sunday's Gospel left off. The landowner and the vineyard in the parable provide obvious parallels with the first Reading; the servants the landowner sends represent the prophet's whose message the people often did not heed. The son whom the tenants kill foreshadows Jesus' Death at the hands of the authorities. Jesus' citations of Psalm 118 reveals that his Death is not the end. Through his Resurrection he lays the cornerstone for the Kingdom of God a kingdom for those disciples willing to produce its fruit.

SPIRITUAL JOURNEYS

❖ PILGRIMAGE TO GREECE AND TURKEY:

In the Footsteps of St. Paul

Fr. Edgar and fellow pilgrims are traversing the countries of Greece and Turkey from September 25 to October 10, tracing the ancient towns and cities where St. Paul made his missionary journeys and preached and wrote his letters and epistles as well as the famous landmarks of the "glory that was Greece." The journey includes a cruise to the Greek Islands of Crete and Santorini, the Virgin Mary's house in Ephesus and visit to the 7 Churches of the Book of Revelation. Covering for Fr. Edgar is our Pastor-Emeritus, Fr. Adrian, who will take care of all the Masses and other needed pastoral and spiritual services. We pray for their safe and pleasant travel as they pray for us in the holy shrines.

Oct 4: "Yasou" or "Aloha" from Santorini Island, Greece; the most breathtaking of all the Greek islands! Fr. Edgar and Pilgrims.

Cathedral of Our Lady of Guadalupe, Mexico

❖ SIX-DAY PILGRIMAGE TO MEXICO: Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Fr. Adrian is leading a pilgrimage to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico from Oct.15-21, 2017. Visit the Old and New Basilicas and spend time for prayer and Holy Mass. Take a tour of Mexico City and view the colonial buildings and architecture, outdoor cafes, museums and Aztec exhibits while strolling the cobbled stone streets. # Stewardship News & Announcements

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

Together with the Parish Education Committee, the Stewardship Committee will sponsor the viewing of relevant and pertinent videos to all parents and guardians as part of their role in the Religious Education of their children. The next showing will be on stewardship.

The Stewardship Committee led by Marc Ulep will continue to meet every 2nd Wednesday of the month to reflect on the pastoral document by the United States Conference of Bishops titled, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. The next meeting is October 11. We welcome any parishioner who is interested to join.

A Way of Life

When Jesus saw the widow putting her "two pennies" in the Temple treasury, He told His disciples, "Truly, I say to you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living" (Mk. 12:43-44). And that is what God expects from us.

God gave us life and the gift of eternal life. He created us for Himself, and He wants our total person (cf. Mt. 19:16-24). How we use the resources in our control expresses our gift of self to God. In short, God doesn't want our resources, He wants us.

Stewardship does not mean giving generous gifts from our possessions. Stewardship means that we recognize God owns it all. We have been entrusted with the goods of the earth, yet we own nothing. How can we give what we do not own? Rather, we must make those resources we do not need available to others.

We have an obligation to provide for ourselves and our families and to maintain a way of life that respects our own dignity as persons (cf. Catechism, no. 2404).

(Philip C.L. Gray, Lawyer, Professional Canonical Services)

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Dear Lord,
 As we begin to shift from summer schedules to autumn demands, teach us to recognize you, and help us follow you amidst our busy life. Open the Scriptures to us... that we may know you, see you, hear you – in the voices of friends and family, in the ministries of our parish, in the proclamation of the Word, and in the Breaking of the Bread. Teach us to be good stewards, that we may use your gifts wisely and care for all those you place in our path. Encourage us, when we are overwhelmed. Strengthen us, when we are frightened. Challenge our complacency. Help us make this new season a time of spiritual renewal, hope, and action to proclaim the Gospel in our words and in our deeds. For the kingdom and the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

MAHALO from Fr. Adrian

The past summers had been pretty hot and humid. While we thank God that we in the Islands have been spared from destructive forces of nature such as category 5 hurricanes and dreadful earthquakes we still flinch at the unbearable brunt of the summer heat. It is for this reason that a bright idea of cooling the parish hall has been conceived. We often gather for fellowships, parties, meetings and other activities in the hall and when it is filled up the temperature rises to a sizzling degree. Fr. Adrian spearheaded the campaign for donors to the needed ceiling and wall fans together with the necessary accessories for hanging and wiring and collected $4,650.00. Fr. Adrian would like to thank everyone who donated to this project and gratefully reported that there are ample able volunteer manpower to do the job gratis et amore dei. God bless all of you for your generosity!

The website administrator is Tita Calizar together with her son, Anthony. Mahalo to them all for sharing their expertise.

*GIFTS OF LOVE

❖ Clem Fontanilla mows the grasses and inspects the grounds before closing the gate at the end of the day.

*CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

*Our parish is always open and welcoming any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. ### Advisory from Bishop Larry Silva regarding DISASTER RELIEF COLLECTIONS

A couple of weeks ago, I authorized each parish to conduct a second collection on a weekend of its choosing in September for the victims of Hurricane Harvey. Since then there have been several other hurricanes which have devastated various Caribbean islands and some U.S. states and a huge earthquake in Mexico City. We know that the Catholic community has been very generous in responding to these crises, and we thank you. Any donations – whether through Sunday collections or individual donations – that you would like to make can be sent either to your parish with the “Disaster Relief” designation, or to the Diocese of Honolulu (1184 Bishop Street, Honolulu, HI 96813) with the same designation. All proceeds will be sent to the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, which has devised a means of distributing the contributions as equitably as possible among those who need them. Meanwhile, let us also support our suffering brothers and sisters with our prayers.

Thanks,
Bishop Larry Silva
