HAPPY SANTO NINO FIESTA

*January 14 – 3:00pm

For some years now, the Visayan Catholic Community has been sponsoring the celebration of the Feast of Santo Nino. It is held today and will start with the Holy Mass at 3:00pm. Typically, it is a festive tradition with a procession enlivened by a band and a street dancing with the image of the Child-Jesus being swayed to the rhythm of the band. The event is capped by a festive dinner and program.

We appreciate the Visayan Community for their devotion and dedication in perpetuating a cherished religious tradition. We join them in celebrating and praying for the continued blessing of Santo Nino upon our Parish and every family, especially the children. St. Anthony Church in Kalihi Kai is also hosting another Santo Nino festivity on January 21.

LIGHT A CANDLE FOR LOVED ONES

A new candle stand has been blessed and placed at the alcove of the Divine Mercy and the Blessed Mother. As we light the candles we can ask for their intercession for our personal intentions for healing, protection, or success, for our families and dear ones, both living and dead, or for world peace and good government leaders. Everyone is welcomed to make use of it. You can put your offering of $2.00 or more at the deposit hole in front of the stand.

Pastor's Corner

By Rev. Edgar B. Brillantes

Next Sunday's Readings Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Jonah 3:1-5, 10

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 25:4-9

Second Reading
1 Corinthians 7:29-31

Gospel
Mark 1:14-20

First Reading: 1 Samuel 3:3-10, 19

Four times Samuel utters the phrase "Here I am." He desires to respond to whoever calls him, whether Eli or the Lord. Often we think that Samuel does not respond to the Lord's call until after Eli instructs him to say, "Speak, Lord, for your servant is listening." Yet the reading opens with the Lord calling to Samuel and Samuel's first utterance of "Here I am." It seems as if Samuel knew from the beginning that the Lord was calling him, but perhaps what was necessary was his acceptance that he was indeed the Lord's servant.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 6:13-15, 17-20

Today's passage is from a section of the letter in which Paul deals with moral issues dividing the Corinthian community. His point is clear; avoid immorality. We are so united with Christ in our body that Paul instructs us that each person's body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. We are the Lord's individually and God will raise us - including our body - just as God raised Christ. The Christian community, the Church, is the Body of Christ, a connection Paul makes later in his letter.

Gospel: John 1:35-42

The choice of two of John the Baptist's disciples to follow Jesus after John identified Jesus as the Lamb of God corresponds to Samuel's call in the First Reading. Jesus' invitation to the two disciples of John parallels the Lord's invitation to Samuel. As Samuel recognized it was the Lord calling, so the disciples recognize Jesus as the Messiah. Jesus, the Messiah, is the Lamb of God, a connection of titles early in the Gospel according to John, whose meaning the disciples will fully understand on the road to Jerusalem.

DIACONATE ORDINATION

*January 18 – 7:00pm – St. Theresa Co-Cathedral

The ordination of six deacons from Oahu will be held on January 18 at the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa. May God bless them and their ministry!

RESPECT LIFE

How do we live out the message of Christmas in the New Year, rather than pack it away with the ornaments?

Each year the Octave Day of Christmas falls on the first day of the New Year, on which we also celebrate the Solemnity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God.

Her open heart and courageous "yes" to God show us how to live year-round—with hearts open to the Lord, following where He leads. We are called to place our trust in Him, to enter compassionately into the suffering of others, and to love one another as Christ loves us. Like Our Blessed Mother welcomed Jesus, we are called to cherish and protect the gift of human life, at every stage and in every circumstance.

One way to live out the message of Christmas and follow Our Lady's example is to join 9 Days for Life, a digital pilgrimage of prayer and charitable action.

The U.S. Catholic bishops invite you to join thousands of Catholics nationwide from Thursday, January 18 – Friday, January 26. Join today at www.9daysforlife.com!

JANUARY 18-26

9 Days for Life is a "digital pilgrimage" of prayer and action focused on cherishing the gift of every person's life. A multi-faceted novena highlighting a different intention each day provides reflections, bonus information, and suggested actions. ## A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious Lord,
Let your goodness reveal itself to us, that we, made in your image, may conform ourselves to it.

We cannot imagine your majesty, power and wonder on our own; nor is it fitting for us to try. But your kindness and mercy reach from the heavens, through the clouds, to the earth below to show us the fruits of your Incarnation.

You have come to us as a small child, but you have brought us the greatest of all gifts, the gift of your eternal love.

Caress us with your tiny hands, embrace us with your tiny arms, and soften our hearts with your tender voice so that we might respond as humble stewards of your active presence in the world.

We pray this through Christ, your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

(Adapted from a prayer by Saint Bernard of Clairvaux)

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The Stewardship Committee in their second year is planning more activities as slated in their pastoral plan. They are looking for more members. Their next meeting is Tuesday, February 13 at 6:00pm. Any interested parishioner is welcomed to join and contact the chairman, Marc Ulep.

Being Good Stewards of Our Personal Vocations

*by Leisa Anslinger, International Catholic Stewardship Council

We have explored the call to discern and live out our vocation, the life vocation that each of us has, and the many calls we experience as followers of Jesus. Another way of saying this is to recognize that living out our vocational call is our mission. We fulfill our mission by being good stewards of our lives, gifts, and blessings. This ongoing discernment and fulfillment of our mission is one of the many things that makes stewardship leadership such a dynamic and sometimes challenging endeavor. Helping people recognize their mission to witness to and make Christ's love known through their stewardship is a sacred responsibility. As we enter the New Year, let us pray that we may fulfill this mission well and with grace. Happy New Year!

BUILDING TOGETHER CONVENT RENOVATION

The first phase of the renovation project in the Convent building of replacing the failing flooring on both ground and second levels is done. The steps of the staircases are also made new. The new flooring for the chapel and the replacement of the old commode bowls in the restrooms were later added and done too. The Planning & Building committee headed by Joyce Oliveira made the inspection and approval of the finished project.

Everyone is welcome to visit and take a look at the newly-installed flooring of the Convent. You would certainly feel happy and proud of it.

We are most grateful to the generosity of everyone in their stewardship offerings. When funds are again available we shall continue to improve the entire structure so as to maximize its use for pastoral and relevant programs. The Parish Finance Committee is spearheading a fundraising activity that will be launched in March 2018. We hope that all parishioners will join hands in making the event a successful one.

Stewardship News & Announcements, contd.

MAHALO TO GOOD STEWARDS

Stewardship is responsible sharing of the gifts of time, talent and treasure that God has bestowed upon each one of us. This has been manifested by our dear parishioners in various ways:

*CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

*CHURCH CHOIR – Every Wednesday and Saturday, the choir takes time to rehearse under the baton of Mary Ann Llamedo. Aside from the adults, children and the youth are being trained cantors. The Sunday worship is made more alive because of their lead in singing praises to God. Please don't hesitate to share your talent. Come and join the choir. Also assisting in the rehearsals and instrumentation are Sr. Clemence Mira, Audrey Peralta, Connie de Santos, Ronnie Palce and the Llamedo family.

*GIFTS OF LOVE

❖Much mahalo to Sio Tuitupou for his regular delivery of freshly picked fruits from his garden to the Rectory refectory. Other parishioners bring and share cooked foods from their kitchen or invite the priests out. Our priests do appreciate such show of care and concern keeping them healthy and happy.

❖Becky Jandoc, the Finance Council chair, donated an office cabinet for use by the Finance Council.

❖Francisca Kovaloff, the Liturgy Committee chair, donated the new candle stand located at the alcove of the Divine Mercy.

❖For the renovation project at the convent, Kalolo Tuihalafatai donated $2000.00.

❖We are most grateful to all dear parishioners who faithfully and steadily supported our Church with their prayers, stewardship and personal involvement in our parish activities and programs that made the past year 2017 productive and memorable for all of us. We look forward to another bright year ahead of us.

*MINISTERS & VOLUNTEERS – Our Parish has been blessed with such responsible stewards who serve and give without counting the cost and we keep praising and thanking God for them.

*Our parish is always open and welcoming any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. You may submit your name at the parish office or contact our pastor. God bless and reward you abundantly.

And we'll give voice to our own stories as a tool for evangelization.

We pray for God's healing and liberation from evil spirits in our bodies, mind and soul and in our environment. Come and celebrate our life in the Spirit as we recognize the miracles He gives us and express our joyful thanksgiving to the Lord. Dr. Jorge & Chloe Samaniego lead the session accompanied by the music of Rory Elefano and the witnessing of Kathy Ferreira and the Sts. Peter & Paul Charismatic Team. The next session will be on January 17, 2018, Wednesday at 7:00pm in the parish hall.
