Pastor's Corner

By Rev. Edgar B. Brillantes

Next Sunday's Reading Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Ezekiel 17:22-24

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 92:2-3, 13-16

Second Reading
2Corinthians 5:6-10

Gospel
Mark 4:26-34

First Reading: Genesis 3:9-15

Consequences always follow from sin. Embarrassment, fear, shame, and guilt follow, too. We know we should not have sinned. Adam knows this, which is why he hides from God and tries to pass the blame on to Eve for his eating the fruit of the forbidden tree. Eve, too, knows serious consequences will follow for her consumption of the fruit. Yet she passes the blame onto the serpent. God punishes the serpent, but also puts enmity between the serpent and humanity. Evil causes separation and broken relationships. The devil at work in the serpent has harmed humanity, yet God in Jesus Christ will ultimately triumph forever.

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

One of Paul's major themes in his second letter to the Corinthians is the transitory nature of our earthly life. We should look at everything we do here as a preparation for eternal life. While we might sense discouragement because even our bodies change with age, if our focus is on our internal self, we know that God in Jesus will help us continually renew our spirits. We live in hope that by virtue of our faith we will share in Jesus' Resurrection.

Gospel: Mark 3:20-35

Evidently the scribes are confused for they attribute Jesus' power to exorcise demons to the devil, Beelzebul. Jesus' response to the accusations is to tell a parable. The message of the parable is that division has no place in relation to God's will. Divided homes and kingdoms continue to exist. This is why God forgives sins, even blasphemies. Yet no one is ever to speak against the Holy Spirit for that would mean a demonic spirit possesses him or her. A relative of Jesus does God's will.

BIBLE STUDY

A new Bible Study program was launched last May 22 in our parish. It is called "Verbum Dei" Encounters which is tailored for Catholics who want to understand better the teachings of God and of the Church based on the Sacred Scriptures. It has been presented at the St. Theresa Co-cathedral and endorsed by the Pastor, Fr. Greg Honorio. Henceforth, the Bible Study will be held weekly on Tuesdays, 6:00pm -7:00pm. It is facilitated by Bro. Firmo Dayao. The next session is on June 12, Tuesday at 6:00pm. Everyone is invited and welcomed to attend. Bible and notebooks are provided for the participants for free. There are no fees to the course.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

As the Catechists and children take their summer break we wish them a safe and enjoyable vacation. Let's keep praying for our children and youths. We thank the generous and joyful services of our ever-caring catechists who mold their minds and hearts with the Christian values and prepare them well for the sacraments of First Reconciliation, Confirmation and First Communion. We thank especially Sr. Clemence Mira, SPC, who has served with apostolic dedication for 10 years as Religious Education Coordinator. We are forever grateful to her.

We urge the parents, grandparents, guardians and all parishioners to join hands in encouraging their children to attend the Sunday Mass during vacation and act as primary catechists and models of living the Christian faith.

The catechists and aides are reminded to register for the Faith Formation Conference which will be held on June 22-23, 2018 at St. Theresa Co-Cathedral.

Stewardship News & Announcements, con'td.

MAHALO TO GOOD STEWARDS

Stewardship is responsible sharing of the gifts of time, talent and treasure that God has bestowed upon each one of us. This has been manifested by our dear parishioners in various ways:

*CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

*CHURCH CHOIR – Every Wednesday and Saturday, the choir takes time to rehearse under the baton of Mary Ann Llamedo. Aside from the adults, children and the youth are being trained cantors. The Sunday worship is made more alive because of their lead in singing praises to God. Please don't hesitate to share your talent. Come and join the choir. Also assisting in the rehearsals and instrumentation are Sr. Clemence Mira, Audrey Peralta, Connie de Santos and the Llamedo family.

*GIFTS OF LOVE

❖Million thanks to the generous donors of the "Save our Convent" Raffle Draw prizes: Erlinda Rosario of McDonald's Maui ($1,500.00), Silver Palting ($1,399.00), William and Mitronia Amoroso ($1,000.00), Gracelyn Devega ($1,000.00), Francisca Kovaloff ($1,000.00), George & Tita Calizar ($1,000.00), Anonymous ($800.00) and Jeanette Bala ($500.00). Marc & Clem Ulep sponsored the performance of Frank de Lima ($400.00). May God reward you abundantly.

❖Big mahalo to Rey, Rizalinda & Ryan Teocson for their generous donation of $2,000.00 for the renovation of the Convent. Much thanks also to Bernardo & Rebecca Villanueva for their gift of $200.00 for the same. Fr. Adrian Gervacio shared part of his prize winnings in the amount of $3,500.00.

❖An anonymous business Foundation donated $265.00 for the OLM Youth Ministry Formation program. God loves a cheerful giver!

❖Our grateful appreciation to Carol Caspillo for donating the framed image of St. Marianne Cope and the new frame of St. Damien de Veuster for our Church. The two images are hung on the left and right sides of the sanctuary and were blessed for public veneration.

❖Two new candle stands by the altar were donated and blessed last Holy Thursday. May God bless the generous donor.

❖We acknowledge all generous contributions which support our pastoral programs and ongoing projects as well as the basic operation of the Church and the rectory. We, the priests, the parish staff and leaders, deeply appreciate and gratefully acknowledge all dear parishioners who faithfully and steadily support our Church with their prayers, stewardship and personal involvement in our parish activities and programs.

*MINISTERS & VOLUNTEERS – Our Parish has been blessed with such responsible stewards who serve and give without counting the cost and we keep praising and thanking God for them.

❖PARKING ATTENDANTS – We see them before and after Masses and during funerals and occasional functions directing traffic and the proper positioning of vehicles in our limited parking lot. They are happy to serve but it is not always easy especially when some would not heed their directions. Let us show our grateful appreciation for their patient and kind services by cooperating with them in keeping our traffic and parking within the church orderly and respectfully.

*Our parish is always welcoming and open to any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. You may submit your name at the parish office or contact our pastor. God bless and reward you abundantly.

STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

❖ In the coming weeks, the members led by Marc Ulep will start preparing our community towards making our commitment to stewardship as a way of life in the parish. This will commence on the third weekend of June. Meanwhile, parishioners will be tapped to give witnessing about their experience of sharing time, talent and treasure starting August 2018.

In their Annual Convocation, the priests were again reminded by the Bishop on working in concert to spread the biblical message of stewardship and implement it as a way of life among all parishioners. Many of us who are involved in the parish leadership, ministries, volunteer works and giving financial support are actually living the stewardship way of life. We just have to make it more consistent, intensify it and invite all to be part of it.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Heavenly Father,
Your Son ascended in great triumph to sit at your right hand.
You sent your Spirit to watch over us, guide us and teach us to be better stewards of your abundant gifts.

May this Spirit of wisdom make us better stewards of our planet. May your Spirit increase our awareness of the dignity of every human life and show us the way to be better stewards of our neighbor.

And through your Spirit, may we be inspired every day to live in accordance with the Gospel, and to give witness to our risen Lord.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever.

Amen.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

Celebrating the Body and Blood of Christ as "Stewards of the Gospel"

...LEADS A GIVER'S HEART TO JESUS

On June 3, we celebrated the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, or Corpus Christi, to celebrate the gift of the Eucharist. Of course, the best way to celebrate it is to live it, to put the Eucharist into action. None of us can be a mere spectator to the Eucharist, for this offering to God of bread and wine is really our offering to him of ourselves, of our lives and of the whole world. Jesus taught us this connectedness when he enjoined us to go into the whole world and proclaim the gospel (see Mark 16:15).

The Eucharist invites us to be "stewards of the gospel;" to follow in Jesus' footsteps and to love others just as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us. This is the meaning behind the language of blood sacrifice proclaimed in the readings. Blood is fundamentally life. The commitment to share in a common life, the covenant between God and Israel, was endorsed in blood, lots of it. Sacrifice was and is necessary. But how does the celebration of the Eucharist relate concretely to our ordinary day-to-day lives? At one level, the practice of going to Mass affirms our belief that there is something extraordinary in our ordinary, daily lives. We take time to acknowledge to ourselves, our families and our communities that we are engaged in a relationship with God through Jesus Christ. More deeply, however, is that the Eucharist transforms us. It provides a center of our being and a driving force that impels us to go out and "be" Christ to a broken world. We are nourished and strengthened in a profound way in order to build up the Body of Christ and carry out Jesus' command to be missionary disciples.

The theme for the 56th annual conference of the International Catholic Stewardship Council, to be held in Nashville, Tennessee, October 28 to 31, is Missionary Disciples: Stewards of the Gospel, in response to the United States bishops' call to form ourselves, and others, as missionary disciples. This conference will give us a wonderful opportunity to learn more about putting the Eucharist into action and to become "doers" of God's Word through missionary discipleship, as individual Catholics, and as local Catholic communities of faith.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ reminds us that we are each called to serve, uniquely equipped with gifts for missionary discipleship, and sent forth to carry the good news of the gospel to all we meet wherever we go. And we are never alone in this journey of faith. Christ is with us in a real and most personal way.

HAPPY KING KAMEHAMEHA DAY

Kamehameha Day on June 11 is a public holiday in the state of Hawaii. It honors Kamehameha the Great, the monarch who first established the unified Kingdom of Hawai'i. In 1883 a statue of King Kamehameha was dedicated in Honolulu by King David Kalākaua (this was a duplicate, because the original statue was temporarily lost at sea but was recovered and is now located in North Kohala, island of Hawai'i). There are duplicates of this statue in Emancipation Hall at the Capitol Visitor Center in Washington, D.C. and in Hilo, island of Hawai'i.

NOVENA TO PERPETUAL HELP

The novena prayers to Our Mother of Perpetual Help is held every Thursday at 7:00pm in the Church. This is followed by the praying of the holy rosary. Come to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. Many prayers for various needs have been granted by her intercession thru this popular devotion. She will also guide us in living a meaningful and genuine Christian life. Come as a family and be blessed.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER MEETING

A spirited group gathers once a month to render spirit-filled praise and worship to God in hymns, prayers and sharing the Word of God. We pray for God's healing and liberation from evil spirits in our bodies, mind and soul and in our environment. Come and celebrate our life in the Spirit as we recognize the miracles He gives us and express our joyful thanksgiving to the Lord. Deacon Raffy Mendoza of the Co-Cathedral of St. Theresa leads the session with witnessing by all present. The next session will be on June 27, 2018, Wednesday at 7:00pm in the parish hall. We thank the Charismatic Team of Sts. Peter & Paul Church led by Dr. Jorge & Chloe Samaniego and Rory Elefano who keep company with us in this journey of faith.
