Pentecost Sunday

Rev. Edgar B. Brillantes
Pastor

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." John 20:21

Rev. Adrian R. Gervacio
Pastor-Emeritus

COME HOLY SPIRIT!

"As we worship together on Pentecost Sunday, empowered by the grace of the Eucharist, we ask for openness to the Holy Spirit in our lives."

(Quoted from the Stewardship 2019 Calendar)

APPRECIATION FOR THE GRADUATES

On June 23 at the 8:30am Mass we shall bestow a common blessing for all who are graduating in High School and College. They will be called to the front of the congregation and will be given tokens of appreciation for their academic excellence and success.

Kindly submit your names to the office by calling or in written form so we know how many gifts will be prepared.

PRAYER: "Heavenly Father, bless + the graduates and look on them with your love so that as they scale another stage in their academic life they move forward in life for their personal advancement and towards serving their community."

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

In celebration of Father's Day, a Book of Remembrance is prepared where we can write the names of fathers, grandfathers, godfathers or stepfathers, both living and dead. They will be included in our prayers and Masses as expression of our love and gratitude for them.

HAPPY KING KAMEHAMEHA DAY!

Tuesday, June 11, 2019

Kamehameha Day is a public holiday in the State of Hawaii. It honors Kamehameha the Great, the monarch who first established the unified Kingdom of Hawai'i — comprising the Hawaiian Islands of Ni'ihau, Kaua'i, O'ahu, Moloka'i, Lāna'i, Kaho'olawe, Maui, and Hawai'i. In 1883 a statue of King Kamehameha was dedicated in Honolulu by King David Kalākaua. There are duplicates of this statue in Emancipation Hall at the Capitol Visitor Center in Washington, D.C. and in Hilo, island of Hawai'i.

"Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth." Psalm 104:30

Next Sunday's Reading The Most Holy Trinity

First Reading
Proverbs 8:22-31

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm: 8:4-9

Second Reading
Romans 5:1-5

Gospel
John 12-15

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The First Reading is the same each year: the account of Pentecost from the Acts of the Apostles. It begins with unity: "they were all in one place together" (Acts 2:1). The Holy Spirit comes in powerful signs - "a noise like a strong driving wind," "tongues as of fire." Immediately, amazing things happen: filled with the Holy Spirit, they begin to speak in different languages. Jews from every nation, gathered in Jerusalem for the feast, are astounded - not by the mighty rushing of the wind, or the tongues of fire - but by the simple fact that they understand each other.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3-7, 12-13

The Corinthian community to whom Paul wrote was beset with serious divisions. Among the causes of their disagreements were jealousy and rivalry, divisive attitudes that Paul addressed throughout the letter. In today's reading, we can well imagine Paul's consternation at people's envy when one person's spiritual gift appears more important than another's. He begins by skillfully admitting that, as they know, there are different gifts, different forms of service, and different workings. What they realized is that the same Spirit is the source of all of these gifts.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

The words, actions, and symbols in this scene from John's Gospel have a liturgical resonance; many of the things that happen when the community gathers for liturgy occur also in this appearance of the risen Jesus. The event is on the first day of the week, the day when believers commemorate the Resurrection of Jesus. The whole group of disciples, still fearful, see the crucified one standing in their midst alive, and speaking to them. He offers them peace, a greeting, a gift, and a revelation of him as their risen Messiah. When Jesus gives his gift of peace, whether to the first disciples or to those who even today gather in his name, their fears and anxieties are transformed to joy.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

"Pray often! Pray together! Thank God for the many gifts each of you have been given. Ask for the guidance and strength of the Holy Spirit as you serve, giving glory to God who is the giver of all good gifts, and know you are in very good hands."

By Leisa Anslinger, International Catholic Stewardship Council

A TRINITARIAN STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

God our Creator,
 You made us all that we are
 and gave us all that we possess.
 Open our hearts so that we may live fully,
 in gratitude for the abundant gifts entrusted to us.
 Jesus our Redeemer,
 You showed us how to attain eternal life
 by following in your footsteps,
 and by our loving service to others;
 thereby proclaiming your Gospel in word and deed.
 Holy Spirit, lift us up and be with us each day.
 Teach us, guide us and give us the courage to embrace stewardship as a way of life in Christ
 as we journey along our pilgrim way back to the Father.
 We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ,
 who lives and reigns with the Father
 and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever.
 Amen.

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDS OF THE CHURCH IN THE 21ST CENTURY

By Mary Ann Otto, Pastoral Minister for Missionary Discipleship, St. Mary & St. Joseph Parishes, Appleton, Wisconsin

As we approach Pentecost, we anticipate an event so powerful that even after two thousand years it is hard to fully grasp its impact. The transforming nature of the Holy Spirit raised up a small group of courageous disciples to carry the mission and message of Jesus Christ to the ends of the earth. Proclaiming their encounter with the risen Lord without Church buildings, budgets, a catechism and technology, they were directed to steward the loving, forgiving and hopeful message of Jesus Christ to the world. The life-altering result of their early ministry brought the small early Christian community to a worldwide Church that numbers in the billions. It is interesting to consider the journey of faith taken by these early disciples in light of the words of the United States bishops in their pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response, in describing what Christian stewards do. To say that these disciples received God's gift of the Good News of Jesus gratefully, nurtured it together with passion and faithfulness responsibly, shared it generously at the risk of losing their lives and returned to God in abundance is truly an understatement. How did they spread the Gospel in dangerous times with so little at their disposal? Imagining what it might be like to sit with Mary of Magdala, Peter, Paul, Priscilla and Aquila and a few other brave and faithful disciples around a table, I cannot help but believe that they might encourage us to go back to our roots and announce the Good News to our neighbors with courage, passion and trust. Our Church has been blessed with longevity and a rich deposit of faith. Pope Francis, however, reminds us that our first responsibility is to share the kerygma, that foundational proclamation of our faith, with everyone we encounter. Jesus loves you; he gave his life to save you; and now he is living at your side every day to enlighten, strengthen and free you. This "Good News" should be imbedded deeply in the hearts and expressed passionately on the lips of every Christian steward of the 21st century Church. For many of us, the pontiff's constant reminder has been an incredible shift in the way we understand what it means to be a disciple. If we reflect, however, on our efforts to speak the Good News aloud, it is always accompanied by the presence and blessing of the Holy Spirit. What might the early disciples say? Perhaps it would be: "Brothers and sisters in Christ, be brave and speak up! It is your turn!"

MAHALO TO GOOD STEWARDS

Stewardship is responsible sharing in gratitude of the gifts of time, talent and treasure that God has bestowed upon each one of us. This has been manifested by our dear parishioners in various ways:

GIFTS OF LOVE

❖ We acknowledge all generous contributions which support our pastoral programs and ongoing projects as well as the basic operation of the Church and the rectory through the regular Sunday offering envelopes and donations. We, the priests, the parish staff and leaders, deeply appreciate and gratefully acknowledge all dear parishioners who faithfully and steadily support our Church with their prayers, stewardship and personal involvement in our parish activities and programs.

MINISTERS & VOLUNTEERS – Our Parish has been blessed with such responsible stewards who serve and give without counting the cost and we keep praising and thanking God for them.

❖ BUILDING & MAINTENANCE – Under the lead of Joyce Oliveira, the Parish & Maintenance Committee selected the winning bid for the replacement of the old louver windows in the Convent. The contractor is KKTF Hawaii who will install PlyGem Pro Line, white vinyl, double-hung with insulated clear low-e sliding glass windows at the contract price of $40,942.81. The amount is taken from the funds raised from the “Save the Convent” fundraising in May and November 2018 as well as from direct donations.

*Volunteer parishioners Jun Cortez and Paul Valbuena teamed up to put up the Easter fountain in the Church for use on Easter Vigil and throughout the Easter season. With grateful hearts we appreciate them for rendering their expert services.

❖ CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. Among them, Marivic Palting takes charge of the plants and flower decorations at the sanctuary. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

❖ GARDENERS – The decorative plants by the church are being nurtured and taken care of by the Visayan Community led by Jun & Nida Flores and Eddie & Cita Lucero.

*The grounds and backyard landscape are kept trim by Clem Fontanilla who also checks the doors and locks the gate at the end of the day.

❖ CHURCH CHOIR – Every Wednesday and Saturday, the choir takes time to rehearse under the baton of Mary Ann Llamedo. Aside from the adults, children and the youth are being trained cantors. The Sunday worship is made more alive because of their lead in singing praises to God. Please don't hesitate to share your talent. Come and join the choir and their practices on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Also assisting in the rehearsals and instrumentation are Sr. Clemence Mira, Audrey Peralta, Connie de Santos and the Llamedo Band.

❖ PARKING ATTENDANTS – Before and after Masses and during funerals and occasional functions they are directing traffic and the proper positioning of vehicles in our limited parking lot. Let us show our grateful appreciation for their patient and kind services by respectfully cooperating with them in keeping smooth flow of traffic and parking in the church grounds. Mark Correia is the Hospitality Ministry coordinator.

Our parish is always welcoming and open to any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. You may submit your name at the parish office or contact our pastor. God bless and reward you abundantly.

TO ALL THE GOOD STEWARDS, OUR SINCERE THANK YOU!

Christian Leadership Institute - Hawaii

Empowering High School teens to become leaders today

The Diocesan Youth & Young Adult Ministry Office is sponsoring the Christian Leadership Institute-Hawaii (CLI-HI) that will take place on June 17-21, 2019 at St. Stephen Diocesan Center in Kaneohe.

The Christian Leadership Institute - Hawaii (CLI-HI) seeks to provide an opportunity for young people to develop skills for leadership and Christian Ministry. The week-long experience challenges young people to share insights and knowledge and to foster one another's learning experiences in group settings to more firmly reinforce participants' ownership of skills and content for use in their unique settings.

CLI-HI fosters growth in the participants' personal and communal faith through the opportunity to take part in and to plan daily prayer and worship experiences, and through sessions particularly focused on prayer and Christian leadership. The journaling process of the program also encourages participants to log their reflections each day and to consider what the materials presented and their own experiences tell them about themselves, their gifts, skills and growing edges, and their faith and community identity.

*Our parish is sending two delegates - Robert Liua and Nichole Peterson.

NOVENA TO PERPETUAL HELP

The novena prayers to Our Mother of Perpetual Help is held every Thursday at 7:00pm in the Church. This is followed by the praying of the holy rosary. Come to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. Many prayers for various needs have been granted by her intercession thru this popular devotion. She will also guide us in living a meaningful and genuine Christian life. Come as a family and be blessed.
