149th PARISH ANNIVERSARY "Celebrating Joyfully as Grateful Stewards"

150th
Parish
Anniversary

2020

PREPARING FOR THE 150TH PARISH ANNIVERSARY

After our spirit-filled and meaningful simultaneous celebration of the feast of our patroness and 149th parish anniversary last August 16-17, we can start looking forward with anticipation the OLM Parish 150th anniversary milestone next year. Our parish leaders will take the lead in identifying the activities and programs that we can undertake to mark the event. For sure everybody will be asked to get involved for this is our collective expression of joy and gratitude to God for his manifold blessings for the past 150 years. Further and regular announcements and information will be made and provided. May the Blessed Lady of the Mount guide and accompany us in this endeavor.

ings for the past 150 years. Further and regular announcements and information will be made and provided. May the Blessed Lady of the Mount guide and accompany us in this endeavor.

PARISH BUILDING & MAINTENANCE

After 7 days of work, the installation of the new windows for the phase 3 of the renovation of the Convent has been completed last August 21. The workers of the contractor, KKTF Hawaii, installed the replacement for the old louver windows with PlyGem Pro Line, white vinyl, double-hung insulated clear sliding glass windows. Roger Isidro of the Building & Maintenance committee supervised the project and certified its completion. The new windows gave the convent a real new look. We invite all parishioners to take a look at them and please know that our priests and parish leaders are most grateful to you because of your contributions and total support. Together we can do much more with the grace of God Almighty.

"Go out to all the world and tell the Good News." Mark 16:15

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm: 68:4-7, 10-11

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:18-1022-24

Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Today's passage from a few verses later in the same and final chapter of Isaiah speaks of God gathering the nations from distant lands together on his holy mountain in Jerusalem. All will acclaim the Lord's glory and live together in the Lord's house where the Lord will care for them as a mother cares for her children.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Using a citation with Old Testament roots in Deuteronomy and Proverbs, the author of Hebrews encourages his audience to remain firm in their commitment to the way of faith. Christians are to take the Lord's discipline as a sign of his fatherly love for them. In the end, an unwavering commitment of faith in word and in deed will lead one to share in the peace righteousness brings.

Gospel: Luke: 13:22-30

An unidentified person who Jesus met as he journeyed to Jerusalem asked him the question that many today still wonder about: Will only a few people be saved? As is often the case, Jesus responds indirectly with a short metaphorical statement and parable. From the first, we learn that many will attempt to enter through the narrow gate, but it will not have enough strength to do so. From the second, we learn that our actions toward others matter in relation to our future. Will we choose to be first or last according to Jesus' wisdom?

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

STEWARDSHIP: Source of Deepening Spirituality

*Excerpted from an article by Daniel Conway, recipient of a 2019 award from the Catholic Press Association

God never stops giving! If we truly seek a deeper relationship with God, our response is to praise God for this great treasure and to demonstrate our gratitude by taking care of, and sharing, God's wonderful gifts every day.

I began thinking about stewardship in the early 1990s and had the great privilege of learning about stewardship from the late Seattle Archbishop Thomas J. Murphy, who at that time was chairman of the United States bishops' ad hoc committee on stewardship and the principal architect of the bishops' pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. Stewardship describes a Christian steward as "one who receives God's gifts gratefully, cherishes and tends them in a responsible and accountable manner, and returns them with increase to the Lord" (SDR, p. 9).

Because God never stops giving, a Christian steward is constantly being invited, and challenged, to receive, cherish, share and return-with-increase the fruits of God's abundant generosity. This is why stewardship is a lifelong responsibility. As long as God keeps giving, we are called to be open and responsive to all his gifts, both spiritual and material.

Stewardship is a source of deepening spirituality because it challenges us to let go of any false notions that we are somehow in control of our lives, our skills and our talents, or our material possessions. We are not the authors of our own existence. We are not the owners of our spiritual and material gifts. We are stewards (caretakers or custodians) of what belongs exclusively and entirely to God.

God has given us the gift of life and the gift of intelligence. We are responsible for taking care of ourselves and developing our minds and growing in wisdom and understanding. We have been given the skills and abilities that allow us to earn a living, care for those we love, and contribute to the common good by our work and by our service to others in the Church and in our community. These gifts of time and talent make it possible for us to acquire the material possessions that we need and enjoy. All God's gifts are good. They are meant to be used responsibly and shared generously with others.

Stewardship helps us develop what Archbishop Murphy called a lifestyle of sharing. When we respond to God's goodness by growing in gratitude, responsibility and generosity, we can experience the difference stewardship makes in our daily lives. As the archbishop said, stewardship invites us to reflect on what is most basic and fundamental in our lives—and to respond from the heart. Stewardship is not a program. It is a way of life.

Stewardship helps us recognize that the ordinary experiences of daily living are gifts from God to be cherished and shared with others. Since God never stops giving, our opportunities to respond from the heart are truly endless. That's why Archbishop Murphy believed that stewardship is a way of life—and a lifelong source of grace and deepening spirituality.

*(Lifted from ICSC e-Bulletin)

Stewardship—it's not just about giving money.
It's about giving everything.

And serve each other according to the gift each person has received, as good managers of God's diverse gifts. —1 Peter 4:10, CEB

CHRISTIAN STEWARDSHIP

*"Stewardship calls us to reflect Jesus Christ as we touch the lives of others."
(From our 2019 Stewardship calendar by J.S. Paluch Company, Inc.)*

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord God,

As we prepare for the transitions of August; of routines becoming regular, signs of schools beginning to emerge, and traffic patterns getting heavier, help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives.

Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still, much as the August wind is still, so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us.

Help us understand that you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe, and the mystery of each human life.

And help us see that we are called to be good stewards of all that you have entrusted to us; tending them faithfully and responsibly so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase.

In this month of August while a measure of summer's stillness remains, speak to our hearts, guide us in your Son's ways, and through your Spirit, give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace in our everyday words and deeds.

MAHALO TO GOOD STEWARDS

Stewardship is responsible sharing in gratitude of the gifts of time, talent and treasure that God has bestowed upon each one of us. This has been manifested by our dear parishioners in various ways:
***GIFTS OF LOVE

❖ We acknowledge all generous contributions which support our pastoral programs and ongoing projects as well as the basic operation of the Church and the rectory through the regular Sunday offering envelopes and donations. We, the priests, the parish staff and leaders, deeply appreciate and gratefully acknowledge all dear parishioners who faithfully and steadily support our Church with their prayers, stewardship and personal involvement in our parish activities and programs.

❖ An anonymous benefactress donated the new electronic subscription for Life Teen and Edge Program for the Youth Ministry. It costs $1,600. God loves a cheerful giver.

❖ Donations were received for the Parish Feast and Anniversary from Anonymous parishioners ($600.00) and for the Convent renovation from an Anonymous parishioner ($500.00). We thank all who contributed and shared to our fellowship coordinated by Aida Isidro during the parish festivity. May God reward them abundantly.

***MINISTERS & VOLUNTEERS – Our Parish has been blessed with such responsible stewards who serve and give without counting the cost and we keep praising and thanking God for them.

❖ BUILDING & MAINTENANCE – The installation of white vinyl, double-hung sliding glass windows in the Convent renovation was completed in 7 days at the contract price of $40,942.81. The amount was raised at the “Save the Convent” fundraisings in May and November 2018 as well as from direct donations of parishioners. The materials were ordered from the US Mainland. The project is under the charge of the Parish Building & Maintenance Committee chaired by Joyce Oliveira and supervised by Roger Isidro.

❖ Much thanks go to Jun Cortez and Paul Valbuena, for installing the lines for the internet connection at the parish hall. Fidel Flores offered to donate routers for wi-fi connections in the church and parish hall. Our sincere gratitude to them all.

❖ CHURCH CLEANERS – Every Saturday a group of men and women parishioners prepare the Church for the weekend celebrations. They clean the altar and the floor, wipe the pews, arrange the books, flowers and linens, put up the seasonal banners and other tasks. They set up the proper worship environments and make our celebrations dignified and meaningful. We do appreciate them for their dedication and devotion. Among them, Marivic Palting takes charge of the plants and flower decorations at the sanctuary. If you are interested to join, please see Roselani Ramones.

Giving occasionally some bunch of flowers for the church is Myra dela Cruz. She has been a regular donor thru her friend and OLM parishioner Adoracion Padilla. Mahalo and God bless you!

❖ GARDENERS – The decorative plants by the church are being nurtured and taken care of by the Visayan Community led by Jun & Nida Flores and Eddie & Cita Lucero.

*The grounds and backyard landscape are kept trim by Clem Fontanilla who also checks the doors and locks the gate at the end of the day.

❖ CHURCH CHOIR – Every Wednesday and Saturday, the choir takes time to rehearse under the baton of Mary Ann Llamedo. Aside from the adults, children and the youth are being trained cantors. The Sunday worship is made more alive because of their lead in singing praises to God. Please don't hesitate to share your talent. Come and join the choir and their practices on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Also assisting in the rehearsals and instrumentation are Sr. Clemence Mira, Audrey Peralta, Connie de Santos and the Llamedo Band.

❖ PARKING ATTENDANTS – Before and after Masses and during funerals and occasional functions they are directing traffic and the proper positioning of vehicles in our limited parking lot. Let us show our grateful appreciation for their patient and kind services by respectfully cooperating with them in keeping smooth flow of traffic and parking in the church grounds. Mark Correia is the Hospitality Ministry coordinator.

❖ SAFE ENVIRONMENT TRAINING – The fulfillment of the Safe Environment requirements for our parish ministers and volunteers on Saturday, August 3, was made possible thru the technical assistance of Fidel Flores and Jun Cortez who set up the wi-fi connections in the hall and assisted by Maryann Llamedo, Andy Llamedo, Mark Correia, Joyce Oliveira, and a few others who lent their extra computer and tablet units. Some have fulfilled the Safe Environment enrolment by themselves but for those who have not done it, please let the Safe Environment Coordinator, Fran Kovaloff, know so she can set a time to assist you. This is a mandated compliance in the entire church of the United States for all who work, serve, minister and volunteer in the parishes. Thank you very much.

***Our parish is always welcoming and open to any parishioner who wants to volunteer in the councils, committees, ministries, organizations, clubs, prayer groups and donor societies and share your God-given talents and gifts to keep our Church going. You may submit your name at the parish office or contact our pastor. God bless and reward you abundantly.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION ENROLMENT

The registration for all children and young people to the Sunday School and Youth & Young Adult Ministry continues today. We enjoin all loving parents to enroll their child/children in learning about our God and the practice of our Christian faith towards their formation as God's children.

NOVENA TO PERPETUAL HELP

The novena prayers to Our Mother of Perpetual Help is held every Thursday at 7:00pm in the Church. This is followed by the praying of the holy rosary. Come to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary. Many prayers for various needs have been granted by her intercession thru this popular devotion. She will also guide us in living a meaningful and genuine Christian life. Come as a family and be blessed.

PARISH REGISTRATION UPDATE

We thank everyone for taking the time to fill up the registration forms for membership in the OLM Parish which will serve to update and expedite communications from the church. If you have not done so, please fill up and submit as soon as you can your individual or family form. It is very important.
