NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL: 2022-2025

"Let's be Eucharistic Stewards"

The Year of Parish Revival began on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, June 11, 2023. As we enter this new season of grace, Bishop Cozzens has composed a beautiful prayer for the Revival and the Church in this next chapter. At OLM, we shall pray together the Eucharistic Revival Prayer in all the Masses.

One of the fruits we anticipate from the National Eucharistic Revival movement is a greater unity within the Catholic Church. Let us join our brothers and sisters from all heritages and backgrounds in earnest intercession as we ask God to pour out an overflowing measure of grace and healing throughout the next year of this movement.

"Eucharistic Stewardship" is a prominent theme in the fifth chapter of the United States Catholic bishops' pastoral letter Stewardship: A Disciple's Response. The bishops teach us that Catholics are called to make the Eucharist a priority in their communal life of prayer, worship and action. The bishops maintain that to be a follower of Jesus Christ one must be a good steward of the Eucharist each and every day. Today, more than a quarter-century after the stewardship pastoral was written, the International Catholic Stewardship Council honors the bishops' teaching on Eucharistic stewardship at its 61st annual conference to be held from October 1-4, 2023 in Orlando, Florida.

We are also participating in the "I Thirst" Hawaii Conference for Eucharistic Revival and Evangelization which are being conducted for clergy and laity by speakers from the US Mainland this and next week.

VIDEO PRESENTATIONS ON THE EUCHARIST

In keeping with the observance of the National Eucharistic Revival in the United States, there will be video presentations on the church teaching on the Eucharist on July 21 and August 11, both Fridays. They are informative and descriptive of the beauty and wonder of the Eucharist.

We are inviting every parishioner to come and watch. We especially urge all liturgical ministers to attend because this will serve as their required spiritual recollection if they intend to renew their commissioning on August 15, during the solemn Eucharistic celebration of our patronal feast.

July 21 – #1 - "On the Road to Emmaus with Heart on Fire and Eyes Enlightened" by Dr. Tim Gray

August 11 – #2 - "Love Broken and Poured Out - Living a Eucharistic Life" by Dr. Mary Healy

The videos are compliments of the FORMED program of the Augustine Institute Bible Conference.

Next Sunday's Reading Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Wisdom 12:13, 16-19

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

Second Reading
Romans 8:26-27

Gospel
Matthew 13:24-43

FOCUS: The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower.

The image of the seed that Jesus offers in today's parable can call us to see more clearly and to listen more carefully. This seeing and hearing requires a posture of wonder, a posture of careful attentiveness. Can we slow down and marvel, watching with anticipation to see what God will do?

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

The first reading speaks of God's word, like rain, doing his will and achieving the end for which it is sent.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

In the second reading, we hear that creation is groaning, but that we have the firstfruits of the Spirit while we wait for redemption.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

In the Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the sower and the seed that fell on rich soil.

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Dear Lord,

Thank You for teaching me to be generous as You have been generous with me.

Thank You for showing me that all I am and have are gifts from You and that these gifts from you, Lord, are meant to be shared.

Show me the joys of generosity.

Help me to understand that others,
perhaps unknown to me,
depend on me for help.

Remind me that my world, my parish,
needs "Good Samaritans" to heal the wounds of our times.

Make me a gift to others in Your name. Amen.

STEWARDSHIP EXPRESSIONS

EUCHARIST AND THE SPIRITUALITY OF STEWARDSHIP

(Part I of a four-part series by author and lecturer, Reverend Joseph D. Creedon from his 2018 book, Stewardship: A Life-Giving Spirituality.)

Baptism makes us disciples with a mission and a ministry; Confirmation seals us with the seven-fold gifts of the Holy Spirit. Eucharist feeds our body, mind and spirit to help us live our faith to its fullness. We eat the bread and drink the wine to make sure that we do not forget the love that motivated Jesus to suffer and die for us; to make sure that we never forget that his love was rewarded when his father called him back to life and changed human history forever! Eucharist is the Stewardship sacrament par excellence.

Without a grateful heart, Eucharist cannot be fully experienced. As all of us are painfully aware, attendance at Sunday Mass is at an all-time low. The explanations for the scandalous decline in Mass attendance are many and it is doubtful that any one explanation can explain fully why participation in the Eucharist on Sunday fails to motivate so many people.

There are some who believe that when the liturgy was no longer celebrated in Latin that we lost our sense of mystery. Once the mystery was gone, people began to drift away. While it cannot be disputed that the beginning of the drop in attendance at Sunday Mass began about the same time that English was introduced most would agree that the relationship is coincidental rather than casual.

Others believe that the drop in Mass attendance is the result of secularism. When I was a young boy all of Sunday, but especially Sunday morning, was reserved for church. There was no shopping because all the stores were closed. There were no Sunday morning road races, no soccer matches and no football games. Sunday morning was for Church. Obviously this is no longer the case. For too many folks Sunday is the only day they do not work. Sunday is now seen as personal time for those who work too long and too hard. Religion now has to compete with an ever-increasing number of opportunities on Sunday and we are not winning the battle.

Some folks were driven away from Church as a reaction to the sexual abuse scandal that is ongoing in our Church. Some think that as believers get better educated their need for church wanes. Still others insist that the new English translation of the Mass, which is certainly new but certainly not English, has added to the problem of declining participation in Sunday Mass. In addition to all of these contributing factors is the reality that more and more people do not believe that missing Mass on Sunday is a sin. Whatever the real reason or reasons, no one can deny that we have a problem and we need to find a solution. I firmly believe, though, that the spirituality of stewardship is the best solution to the problem of declining Sunday Mass attendance. (See Part II in the August ICSC eBulletin).
