OBSERVING INDEPENDENCE DAY

Every year, Americans celebrate Independence Day, the anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence. On this day, we affirm the Declaration's assertion that humans are endowed with unalienable rights to "Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness," and that the purpose of government is to secure those rights. When the government becomes destructive of those rights, it is the prerogative of the people to abolish and replace that power with one that protects them. The Continental Congress declared on July 4, 1776, that the "United States of America" were to be "Free and Independent States," founded upon those unalienable rights.

Thus, the United States was established upon a set of moral doctrines rather than a common ethnic or demographic heritage. By its own confession, the United States was founded upon a moral theory, not a shared demographic, racial, or linguistic community. (Kenneth Craycraft, Our Sunday Visitor, July 2-8, 2023)

A POPE'S ADVICE ON AMERICAN DEMOCRACY

"Democracy serves what is true and right when it safeguards the dignity of every human person, when it respects inviolable and inalienable human rights, when it makes the common good the end and criterion regulating all public and social life. But these values themselves must have an objective content. Otherwise, they correspond only to the power of the majority, or the wishes of the most vocal... America: may your trust always be in God and in none other." (Pope St. John Paul II, 1995 visit to the United States)

PRAYER ON INDEPENDENCE DAY

Father of all nations and ages, we recall the day when our country claimed its place among the family of nations; for what has been achieved we give you thanks, for the work that still remains we ask your help, and as you have called us from many people to be one nation, grant that, under your providence, our country may share your blessings with all the people of the earth.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

Next Sunday's Reading Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Zechariah 9:9-10

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-24

Second Reading
Romans 8:9, 11-13

Gospel
Matthew 11:25-30

FOCUS: We are called to carry our cross and follow Jesus.

The readings today reflect on what we gain through sacrifice. Sacrifice is not just about what we give up, but rather what we discern to be unnecessary or in vain. When we put these things aside, we then can find what is most important. Jesus teaches us that through sacrifice, we find our true reward with him.

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16

In the first reading, Elisha is warmly received by a woman of influence. In recognition of her hospitality, he promises her a baby son.

Second Reading: Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

In the second reading, Saint Paul tells the community that, by dying with Christ, we find our way to new life.

Gospel: Matthew 10:37-42

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches his Apostles that those who lose their life for his sake will ultimately find fulfillment.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL: 2022-2025

"Let's be Eucharistic Stewards"

National Eucharistic Revival Prayer

The Year of Parish Revival began on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, June 11, 2023. As we enter this new season of grace, Bishop Cozzens has composed a beautiful prayer for the Revival and the Church in this next chapter. At OLM, we shall pray together the Eucharistic Revival Prayer in all the weekend Masses.

One of the fruits we anticipate from the National Eucharistic Revival movement is a greater unity within the Catholic Church. Let us join our brothers and sisters from all heritages and backgrounds in earnest intercession as we ask God to pour out an overflowing measure of grace and healing throughout the next year of this movement.

Lord Jesus Christ, you give us your flesh and blood for the life of the world, and you desire that all people come to the Supper of the Sacrifice of the Lamb. Renew in your Church the truth, beauty, and goodness contained in the Most Blessed Eucharist.

Jesus living in the Eucharist, come and live in me.

Jesus healing in the Eucharist, come and heal me.

Jesus sacrificing yourself in the Eucharist, come and suffer in me.

Jesus rising in the Eucharist, come and rise to new life in me.

Jesus loving in the Eucharist, come and love in me.

Lord Jesus Christ, through the paschal mystery of your death and resurrection made present in every Holy Mass, pour out your healing love on your Church and on our world. Grant that as we lift you up during this time of Eucharistic Revival, your Holy Spirit may draw all people to join us at this Banquet of Life. You live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever.

Our Lady of Peace, Mother of the Eucharist, Pray for us.

During this period of National Eucharistic Revival (2022-2025), may we have the fervent faith and intense desire to worthily receive the Lord's Body and Blood in the Holy Eucharist.

July 7 - 7:30am Eucharistic Adoration & Holy Hour

STEWARDSHIP EXPRESSIONS

INVOLVING YOUNG PEOPLE IN SACRED LITURGY IS GOOD STEWARDSHIP

Now that your teen or college age young adult has received the sacrament of Confirmation, isn't it time to get them more deeply involved in the Mass? It is no secret that one of the best ways for a young person to nurture a greater love for the Eucharist is by a more active participation in the liturgy.

The National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry has sought for many years to encourage greater participation by young people in the Mass. A publication from the Federation, From Age to Age: The Challenge of Worship with Adolescents (1997), started a national dialogue on how to get teenagers more involved in the Church's celebration of the Eucharist.

Involvement by young people can include such liturgical activities as: • Extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist • Ushers • Ministers of Hospitality • Lectors/Readers • Altar servers • Gift bearers • Cantors • Musicians • Choir members • Leaders for Children's Liturgy of the Word

As good stewards of the faith-life of teenagers and young adults, let's identify their gifts and invite them to a fuller participation at the table of the Lord. Get them involved. Make them feel as though they are welcome as mature, responsible stewards of the life of the parish family. They will be enriched by the experience, and so will the faith community.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious God,
 During this season of summer,
 we know that your Son has offered us a peaceful awareness of his presence.
 He is always with us,
 but most times, we do not slow down enough to become aware of his presence.
 Help us to slow down and appreciate this gift, and come to a deeper understanding of his life and ministry
 through the power of your Spirit in our lives.
 Help us recognize those moments
 when Your Son has rescued us, healed us, and reconciled us.
 Increase our trust in him,
 show us how to reach beyond ourselves
 to witness his presence to others,
 and give us the wisdom to be better stewards
 and sacraments of Christ's presence each day.
 We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
