Next Sunday's Reading Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Genesis 3:9-15

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 130:1-8

Second Reading
2 Corinthians 4:13-5:1

Gospel
Mark 3:20-35

FOCUS: Jesus' sacrifice seals our covenant with God forever.

As we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we give thanks in a particular way for Christ's perfect offering of himself as the eternal sacrifice. In ancient times, sacrifices of animals, material goods, or even humans were offered to divine entities. These were ritual ceremonies forced upon the people as an act of worship or placation. Jesus, in revealing to all the one, true God, offers his own body and blood for our salvation. This perfect sacrifice has united us to the Father once more, and is the source and summit of our life in Christ.

First Reading: Exodus 24:3-8

In the first reading, Moses and the people offer sacrifices to God.

Second Reading: Hebrews 9:11-115

The author of the second reading emphasizes that Christ sacrificed his own blood, an offering far greater than an animal.

Gospel: Mark 14:12-16, 22-26

In the Gospel, Jesus sends his disciples to prepare for Passover. While they were eating, Jesus blessed bread and wine and gave it to his disciples, saying, this is my body, and this is my blood of the covenant.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

STEWARDSHIP > A WITNESS TO YOUNG PEOPLE

I have always found this excerpt from the U.S. bishops' pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple's Response particularly powerful: "Jesus' call is urgent. He does not tell people to follow him at some time in the future but here and now — at this moment, in these circumstances. There can be no delay" (SDR, p. 14). As stewardship leaders, we must constantly ask ourselves these questions: What is our particular moment of life personally and in our faith community? What circumstances must we take into consideration as we call one another to live and grow as stewards, especially our young people?

In the first chapter of the bishops' letter, they help us to recognize that embracing stewardship is about living out our particular vocations and acting as compelling Christian witnesses to others. We discern Christ's call for us in the context of the community of believers; we respond to the urgent call of Christ. This is why it is very important that we begin forming our children and teens as stewards, so that they will recognize and respond to God's grace in their lives, understand themselves as disciples of Jesus Christ from a very early age, and reflect on their response to Christ's call and their many blessings as good stewards.

There is much evidence that such real-life, day-to-day faith formation is needed if our youth are to remain actively engaged in a life of faith within the faith community as young adults. In the United States over 30 percent of adults under the age of 30 are now unaffiliated. The majority of these young people leave their faith community before age 24. Young adults tell us they are looking for a meaningful way of life; they want to contribute to something that matters; they need to know that religion is not at odds with science, but rather, that faith brings a larger perspective to what is learned through science. They want and need to learn from the witness of adults who are actively living as faith-filled people in the world. Stewardship provides so much that our young people need. Forming young people to live as good stewards is a gift beyond what most of us can ask or imagine.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious and Loving God,
 When your Spirit descended upon the apostles at Pentecost, they spoke the languages of those who came to hear their testimony.
 They proclaimed a new covenant in Christ Jesus,
 sanctified by his blood, bound by the Holy Spirit,
 and sealed in the waters of Baptism.
 We give you thanks and praise for releasing your Spirit upon us;
 and in these anxious times
 pray that it will break through the many barriers that divide people.
 Let your Spirit open our eyes as a communion of faith
 to your ongoing presence among us,
 so we can recognize you when we serve one another.
 Let your Spirit open our minds
 so that we may gain the wisdom to work together,
 to show love for our neighbors,
 and unite our talents to build a better, safer world.
 And let your Spirit open our hearts
 so that together we can live more fully in Christ, shine his light of mercy and hope
 and prepare for the day of his glorious return.
 We pray this through your son, Jesus Christ
 who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

'OHANA IN CHRIST

APPEAL FROM BISHOP LARRY SILVA:

Each day, the Catholic church in Hawaii shares the spirit of Christ throughout our 'Ohana of parishes, schools, social agencies, and communities across the Islands. This is all possible thanks to your generous response to our Catholic mission and the call to "Witness to Jesus." Beyond the good works at each parish, the annual 'Ohana in Christ Appeal helps us respond to the material and spiritual needs of the greater church. Funds raised will support many important services and ministries throughout the Diocese that no single faith community could meet alone.

Once again, I humbly ask for you to prayerfully consider making a generous gift to this important appeal. Please know that I pray for you and your loved ones each day – and will remember all donors in a special Mass.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Larry Silva
