† CELEBRATING 153 YEARS AND RENEWING OUR FAITH IN GRATEFUL STEWARDSHIP! †

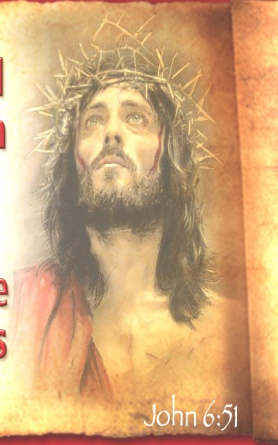

Pastor
Rev. Fr. Edgar B. Brillantes

JESUS SAID:

I AM the Living Bread that came down from Heaven. Whoever eats of this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

John 6:51

Pastor Emeritus
Rev. Fr. Adrian R. Gervacio

BLESSINGS & BIG MAHALO

for celebrating with us
our Patroness' Feast & 154th Parish Anniversary!

With joy and gratitude we celebrated the solemn Feast of our Patroness, Our Lady of the Mount, and the 154th Anniversary of our Parish. For 9 days, from August 6-14, we prayed the rosary and novena prayers as our spiritual preparation. Various prayer leaders took turns to lead and we appreciate them.

On August 14 was the culmination of the novena which coincided with the Vigil of the Assumption of Mary. We celebrated the Holy Mass at 5:00 PM and Fr. Victor Lanuevo, a retired US Army Chaplain, concelebrated with us. We then held the traditional procession to the grotto which is under the care of the Irmandade de Nossa Senhora do Monte and prayed the rosary and sang hymns to Mary. We returned to the Church to pray the Parish Anniversary prayer and then proceeded to the hall for fellowship over malasadas and native delicacies.

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 34:2-3, 16-21

Second Reading
Ephesians 5:21-32

Gospel
John 6:60-69

FOCUS: The Eucharist is essential to life in Christ.

Jesus preaches that those who eat his flesh and drink his blood will remain in him and he in them. It is through our participation in the Eucharist that we are united most intimately to Christ. We need to eat to sustain our bodily life. We need to consume the bread of life to sustain our spiritual life with Christ.

First Reading: Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has built her house, set her table, and invited those who lack understanding to come and dine.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:15-20

Paul advises the Ephesians to live carefully and wisely.

Gospel: John 6:51-58

Jesus tells the crowds that he is the living bread come down from heaven and that all who eat his flesh and drink his blood will have eternal life.

ILOCANO MASS

*August 25, Sunday, 6:00pm

Come and join the worship of the Lord in Ilocano prayers, hymns and readings and be blessed.

OCFCC CHARITY CORONATION / SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS CEREMONY

The OLM Filipino Catholic Club (FCC) will be hosting the Oahu Council of Filipino Catholic Clubs Charity Coronation/Scholarship Awards ceremony this year. The unit placed 1st in this year's council's annual fundraiser. The unit candidate, Mrs. Norma Daligcon, will be crowned the 2024 OCFCC Queen of Charity on Sunday, September 1, 2024 here at the parish. Festivities begin at 4:00 p.m. with the coronation and mass to immediately follow. Dinner will be served in the hall after the mass. Entertainment throughout the evening and presentation of various awards. Please join the FCC in this very joyous occasion. Sign ups are being taken at the back of the church after each mass for the next two weekends. If you have any questions, please contact President Fe Go or any member of the FCC.

On August 15, at 5:00 PM, we gathered to celebrate the Feast of our Patroness on the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary with the Holy Mass preceded with floral offering and crowning of the Blessed Mother. Dorothy Pregil and her two grandchildren did the honors of crowning the image of Mary. Fr. Greg Honorio, the Vicar for Clergy, and Fr. Mario Raquepo, Diocesan Chaplain for hospitals and Fr. Edgar's classmate in the Seminary, concelebrated with us. Before the blessing, the Irmandade represented by Dorothy Pregil presented a $5,000-cheque as first quarter advance of their $15,000.00 donation to OLM church this year. Last year, they gave a $10,000.00 donation which we have used among other things to reseal and waterproof the entire parish hall roofing and for the repainting of the rectory exterior. It's such a tremendous gift to Our Lady and her Church on her feast day and anniversary and everyone applauded the generous gesture.

Filled with elation and gratitude we then proceeded to the hall for the Appreciation dinner for all parishioners for their support, participation and joyful stewardship.

We acknowledged our parish leaders in the Pastoral and Finance Councils; the committee members in Stewardship, Building & Maintenance, Liturgy; and all in the various ministries - Faith Formation, Youth & Young Adult, Outreach, Kokua, Prison & Hospital, Musicians, RCIA, Baptismal Preparation, Website & myParish app, Parish Bulletin, Stewardship counters, the Liturgical ministers – Musicians, Cantors & Choir, Eucharistic, Lectors, Sacristan & Altar Servers, cleaning & decoration, Hospitality, usher, parking attendants, Funeral & Bereavement; Organizations – Knights of Columbus, Filipino Catholic Club, Visayan Ministry & Santo Nino Devotion, Ilocano Ministry & Mother of Perpetual Help Devotion; and personnel/staff – office manager, business manager, receptionists, and janitor.

We truly appreciate them for all they're doing to assist, collaborate and implement our parish programs in order to achieve our vision-mission as a parish. The parish gave away simple tokens of appreciation and provided the main menus for the banquet and as usual, the parishioners brought whatever their generous hearts dictated to share for desserts - fruits, pastries, drinks, native delicacies, etc. The Ilocano Marian devotees served the traditional lechon. A special feature of the night was the slideshow presentation of photos taken from various events in the life of the parish and parishioners as compiled by Mary Ann Llamedo and operated by Jun Cortez.

We truly appreciate each and everyone including friends and guests who came from other parishes to join our celebrations. We made special mention of the Irmandade due, of course, to their sizable donation for the Church and for allowing us to go up Our Lady's grotto on the hillside which they maintain so well for our traditional pilgrimage and giving homage to the Blessed Lady on her feast day. Special mention was made also of the OLM Knights of Columbus Council 12935 including their spouses for volunteering to do the repainting of the rectory as their heartfelt gift on the occasion of our patroness' feast and parish anniversary. All these are being recorded and kept in the parish file for posterity.

Last but not least, we continue to live and celebrate our faith as well as show our love and devotion to the Lord and our Blessed Mother that they may intercede for us and bless all of us abundantly.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

GOOD STEWARDS AVOID "COMPASSION FATIGUE"

One of the spiritual maladies Christians face today is "compassion fatigue." The media inundates us with details of war, hunger, poverty and disasters, both natural and human-manufactured, all over the globe. We can't turn on the television or digital media without being assailed by news stories of another event that cries to us for help, and we are overwhelmed by pleas from worthy charities.

We try to give out of a sense of compassion, but the needs of the world are too much for us. Generous givers become "fatigued" and grow weary. We can't respond to all the problems and crises in the world, can we?

Of course we can't respond to the cries of a suffering world with our comparatively meager resources. If we try to respond to every crisis, to say "yes" to every loud or consistent plea for help, it is no surprise that we feel tired and discouraged. Our efforts to respond generously can become scattered and not well thought out, and sometimes our giving becomes motivated by guilt rather than compassion. Eventually, we may stop giving.

Good stewards understand that, though Christ calls them to embrace a needy world with compassion, they cannot solve the world's problems themselves and that a balance must be struck in their spiritual lives. Christian stewards prayerfully discern how they are able to respond to the needs of the world. They budget their time and resources so that their response can be generous but focused, sacrificial but not overwhelming. They begin with a prayerful commitment to their immediate family of faith. Being generous to one's faith community can go a long way toward meeting the needs of others. Their response to the diocesan annual appeal and to special collections also makes them part of a larger faith community's response to the poor and marginalized.

For some, this focused generosity may be the extent of their ability to give financially. The decision to give is made prudentially and without guilt. For others, a well thought-out approach to supporting other charitable causes can be part of their stewardship planning as well. But for Christian stewards the giving does not stop there. Good stewards realize that the greatest gift they can give is the gift of prayer. Compassion, in its Latin roots, means "suffering with," and through prayer we can be drawn powerfully into solidarity with those who suffer.

The Parable of the Good Samaritan in the Gospel of Luke is often seen as Jesus' example of compassionate giving. The Samaritan saw the man near death lying at the side of the road not just with his eyes, but with a compassionate heart. It is the kind of compassionate heart good stewards seek to cultivate within themselves through prayer, planning and focused generosity; ready to respond, without experiencing fatigue or weariness, to the cries of the world.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord God,

As we prepare for the transitions of August;
of routines becoming regular, signs of schools beginning to emerge, and traffic patterns getting heavier, help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives.

Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still, much as the August wind is still,
so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us.

Help us understand that you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe, and the mystery of each human life.

And help us see that we are called to be good stewards of all that you have entrusted to us; tending them faithfully and responsibly so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase.

In this month of August
while a measure of summer's stillness remains, speak to our hearts, guide us in your Son's ways, and through your Spirit,
give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace in our everyday words and deeds.

We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

❖ ANNOUNCEMENTS #3 ❖

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

UPDATE: As we enter the third year of the National Eucharistic Revival, the US Bishops are asking every parish in the United States to participate in a kerygmatic preaching series for five weeks proclaiming Eucharistic theology in a special unified way. It will be based on the Sunday Gospel in John 6 about the Bread of Life discourse from July 28 to August 25.

*In implementing the Eucharistic Revival program, the Dioceses and parishes have their point persons. In the Diocese of Honolulu, it is Fr. Alfred Omar Guerrero and in OLM Parish, Fran Kovaloff is the point person. Fr. Ese'ese "Ace" Tui is the head of the Eucharistic Revival Task Force.

co COUNCIL 12935

ASSEMBLY 1577

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

OUR LADY OF THE MOUNT CHURCH 1614 MONTE ST. HONOLULU, HI 96819

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THE OFFICERS & MEMBERS OF OLM KOC COUNCIL 12935

Herman Monico > Grand Knight * Rambeau Gahan > Deputy Grand Knight

The OLM Knights of Columbus have done a wonderful job of repainting the Rectory. They brought and put in place the needed scaffoldings and planks then pressure washed all the exterior sides, removed and wiped off the molds, grimes, dust and peeling off old paints and applied caulking material. After doing the prep work, they started the main task. Led by Vicente Velasco, everyone enjoyed employing their skills and artistry in painting. Assisting Vicente were Rambeau Gahan, Joseph Llantero, Renato dela Rosa, Alex Pe Benito; Frankie Cabral; Florencio Sipalay and Carlito Centino. Some knights' ladies were also around to assist and serve their snacks and meals – Luz Velasco, Cora dela Rosa, Mila Llantero, and Marichu Pe Benito. They tried to finish the project before and in time for the patroness' feast and parish anniversary celebrations.

May God's blessings pour out on our brother Knights and their ladies. They volunteered to work on this project to serve as their Faith in Action Ministry and as their gift to our patroness on her feast day and to our parish on its 154th Anniversary. We are grateful to our parishioners for their stewardship offerings and to the Irmadade de Nossa Senhora do Monte for their generous donation which provided financial backing to the project. Vivat Jesus!
