STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

STEWARDING OUR FAMILIES: When "Back to School" means "Back to the Family Dinner Table"

August brings us face to face with one of life's realities: summer vacation has to end. Children may groan and parents may breathe a sigh of relief, but one thing is certain. The beginning of school brings a return to routine, and this translates into less eating on the run and more scheduled meals around the family dinner table. Here are a few dinner table tips:

- Everyone should know certain nights are family dinner nights. Look closely at everyone's schedule, make a plan, and then hold family nights sacred.
- Whether frozen pizza or prime rib, set the table nicely and sit down. Maybe light a dinner candle or pull out the cloth napkins now and then. Pick up a special dessert once in a while.
- Parents and kids often hit the dinner hour fatigued. Make an effort to relax. Start off with a smile and laughter, even when you'd rather hit the couch.
- If you haven't already, begin the family custom of praying before meals in a spontaneous way. What was I most thankful for today? Where did I see a situation that calls for prayer? Let everyone take a brief turn. It may lead to a great conversation after the "amen."
- Resist scolding or criticizing a child at dinner. Never demand to know why the math paper wasn't turned in, or why the kid will not get out of bed on time. Save it for a private discussion later. Allow the dinner table to be a place of welcome and support.

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 15:2-5

Second Reading
James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27

Gospel
Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

FOCUS: Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.

It can be challenging to be people of faith. Accepting and understanding the magnitude of the Lord's love for us, including the mystery of Jesus handing himself over for us, may be difficult at times. But faith is a gift, so although we may struggle, we can trust God to grant us the grace we need to commit to serving him and following his Son.

First Reading: Joshua 24:1-2, 15-18

In the first reading, Joshua calls upon Israel to commit to serve God above all other gods.

Second Reading: Ephesians 5:21-32

In the second reading, Paul uses marital imagery to teach about Christ's love for his Church.

Gospel: John 6:60-69

In the Gospel, some disciples find Jesus' teaching about the bread of life too difficult to accept. Peter trusts Jesus and commits to continue following him.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION (contd.)

- Share the ups and downs of your own day. Listen respectfully to their exploits and complaints.
- As you review the day's events, don't forget God. Just as you are interested in what your children are reading in literature class or library hour, express an interest in what's being taught in religion class or in weekly faith formation.
- Set the rule that everyone remains seated until all are finished. Then the meal is complete.
- But the work's not done. Divide the duties of setting the table, clearing, washing, even cooking so that everyone has a role to play and the work goes quickly.
- Bring back the custom of an "after dinner" prayer, brief and blessed.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord God,

As we prepare for the transitions of August;
of routines becoming regular, signs of schools beginning to emerge,
and traffic patterns getting heavier,
help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives.

Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still, much as the August wind is still,
so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us.

Help us understand that you alone are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe, and the mystery of each human life.

And help us see that we are called to be good stewards of all that you have entrusted to us; tending them faithfully and responsibly so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase.

In this month of August
while a measure of summer's stillness remains, speak to our hearts, guide us in your Son's ways, and through your Spirit,
give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace in our everyday words and deeds.

We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

❖ ANNOUNCEMENTS #2 ❖

Co COUNCIL 12935

ASSEMBLY 1577

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

OUR LADY OF THE MOUNT CHURCH 1614 MONTE ST. HONOLULU, HI 96819

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL THE OFFICERS & MEMBERS OF OLM KOC COUNCIL 12935

Herman Monico > Grand Knight * Rambeau Gahan > Deputy Grand Knight

*Corporate Mass & Meeting – August 25

The OLM Knights of Columbus have done a wonderful job of repainting the Rectory. They brought and put in place the needed scaffoldings and planks then pressure washed all the exterior sides, removed and wiped off the molds, grimes, dust and peeling off old paints and applied caulking material. After doing the prep work, they started the main task. Led by Vicente Velasco, everyone enjoyed employing their skills and artistry in painting. Assisting Vicente were Rambeau Gahan, Joseph Llantero, Renato dela Rosa, Alex Pe Benito; Frankie Cabral; Florencio Sipalay and Carlito Centino. Some knights' ladies and other volunteers were also around to assist and serve them snacks and meals – Luz Velasco, Cora dela Rosa, Mila Llantero, Marichu Pe Benito, Charito Sipalay and Lia Centino. They tried to finish the project before and in time for the patroness' feast and parish anniversary celebrations.

As we extend our profound gratitude, we pray God's blessings upon our brother Knights, their spouses and volunteers. They stepped up to carry out this project to serve as their Faith in Action Ministry and as their gift to our patroness on her feast day and to our parish on its 154th Anniversary. We are likewise grateful to our parishioners for their stewardship offerings and to the Irmandade de Nossa Senhora do Monte for their generous donation which provided financial backing to the project. Vivat Jesus!
