Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Isaiah 35:4-7

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 146:6-10

Second Reading
James 2:1-5

Gospel
Mark 7:31-37

FOCUS: Jesus teaches us to keep our focus on obeying God's commandments.

Like the Pharisees in today's Gospel, we can get caught up in our traditions, questioning and arguing with those who do things differently or want to change our ways. Jesus offers a reminder to not lose sight of what is truly important: obeying God's commandments and keeping our hearts and actions pure.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Moses exhorts the Israelites to listen to and observe the commandments of the Lord.

Second Reading: James 1:17-18, 21-22, 27

The Apostle James calls upon his fellow Christians to humbly receive and practice God's word.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

In the Gospel, Jesus accuses the Pharisees of observing human religious traditions yet failing to obey God's commands. He then teaches the people that it is the thoughts and actions born in the human heart that defile.

OLM FILIPINO CATHOLIC CLUB

The OLM FCC is hosting the Oahu Council of Filipino Catholic Clubs (OCFCC) Annual Charity Queen Festival & Scholarship Awards this Sunday, September 1. Fe Go is the current president and is instrumental in garnering the Charity Queen seat in a highly competitive race among 9 vying candidates through her members' concerted fundraising initiatives. The OLM FCC winning candidate, Norma Daligcon, will be crowned the Charity Queen. Around 300 delegates from member-parishes are expected to attend. The fundraising is intended for the awarding of scholarship grants to deserving students who are children or grandchildren of FCC members. They also give financial aid for the needs of their parish church. This year's event is particularly exciting for the OLM unit because the last time it won the queenship and hosted the Charity Queen Festival was 37 years ago when Jennifer Jandoc was the crowned winner. Since then Jen had remained active and dynamic member of the FCC serving in various capacities including Convention Chair of the Diocesan Congress of Filipino Catholic Clubs (DCFCC). We pray for God's blessings on the OLM FCC and all Units throughout the Diocese. They are preparing for their 74th Annual Convention in Hilo come November. May they remain faithful to their mission of serving the Church and promoting the Catholic faith. May there be more Filipinos young and old who would be inspired to join them. Also coming from the OLM FCC who are serving in the statewide DCFCC and appointed by the Bishop are Clementina Ceria-Ulep – Executive Secretary and Fr. Edgar Brillantes – Spiritual Director.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

STEWARDSHIP OF PRAYER FOR KIDS

It's hard to believe, but it's that time of year: the "back to school" ads have returned. Although it seems we just threw the book bags in the closet for the summer, it's time to dig them out. As August begins, we start thinking about scaling back the bedtime hour and wringing the most out of the last weeks of freedom.

For many parents, it's a wistful time. Can my baby possibly be in fourth grade? And how could last year's gym shoes have grown so tight? But for many parents, a sigh of relief comes along with the school bell's first peal. Autumn brings back a welcome routine, a sense of order and discipline that summer lacks. Kids are back on schedule!

Christian stewards can take advantage of this return to "normal." Make a plan now to take advantage of this "new" year and incorporate aspects of prayer and awareness of God into your kids' new schedule. For example, will you be driving your kids to school? That morning journey can be a great time for a shared morning prayer. Even a walk together to the bus stop can be a time to pause and ask God to bless our day. And perhaps your summer of eating on the fly is being replaced by more established mealtimes. Take advantage of that to begin a new blessing at the evening meal on the very first day of school. Along with thanksgiving for our food, each member of the family could relate one person or one event for which they were particularly grateful during the day.

At bedtime, each child recall with his parent the best part of his day, and what was the most challenging. How was God there through those events? Not only is this a beautiful way to help your child be conscious of the presence of God, it's a great way to learn more about your child's experiences. By your own example, show your children that a sense of prayerfulness permeates your day, that life has meaning and purpose when reflected upon, and that the habits ingrained in a schedule can be habits retained for a lifetime.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord God,

As we prepare for the transitions of August;
of routines becoming regular,
signs of schools beginning to emerge,
and traffic patterns getting heavier,
help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives.

Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still,
much as the August wind is still,
so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us.
Help us understand that you alone
are the source of every good gift, of the vast array of our universe,
and the mystery of each human life.

And help us see that we are called to be good stewards of all that you have entrusted to us;
tending them faithfully and responsibly
so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase.

In this month of August while a measure of summer's stillness remains,
speak to our hearts,
guide us in your Son's ways,
and through your Spirit,
give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace in our everyday words and deeds.

We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

UPDATE:

This summer in July, tens of thousands of Catholics gathered for the National Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis. Speakers fostered an encounter with the Eucharistic Lord. Participants adored his presence in the Blessed Sacrament, joining together with the Church in the holy sacrifice of the Mass. They experienced anew the gift of communion with Christ and the Church as the universal Church joined with one voice and heart.

With the conclusion of the Congress, the National Eucharistic Revival is not over. The year following the congress is dedicated to the work of MISSION. Missionary disciples, transformed by the experience of the Eucharist, will testify to the power of Christ in their lives. They will invite neighbors and friends to come to Mass, asking them to discover anew that human beings flourish not when they worship power or prestige, but the God who loves us unto the end.

Lifted from Timothy P. O'Malley, Making Catholic Schools Eucharistic, Our Sunday Visitor, September 1-7, 2024*

In implementing the Eucharistic Revival program, the Dioceses and parishes have their point persons. In the Diocese of Honolulu, it is Fr. Alfonso Guerrero and in OLM Parish, Fran Kovaloff is the point person. Fr. Ese'ese "Ace" Tui is the head of the Eucharistic Revival Task Force.*
