† CELEBRATING 154 YEARS AND RENEWING OUR FAITH IN GRATEFUL STEWARDSHIP! †

Pastor
Rev. Fr. Edgar B. Brillantes

“If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” – Jesus (Mark 9:35)

Pastor Emeritus
Rev. Fr. Adrian R. Gervacio

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION BE A GOOD STEWARD OF YOUR FAITH

There’s something wonderfully renewing about autumn, especially as it begins a new school year. It’s all about new beginnings. Maybe it has something to do with new classrooms, new teachers, the great smell of brand new shoes and the smooth touch of that new backpack.

We remember those feelings of starting again even if it’s been years since we walked through the school house door, and even if we don’t have our own children heading off to the classroom this fall. We still get that heady feeling of new possibilities in the crisp autumn air. This is the perfect time to bring a sense of spiritual renewal to your life and to your family – the domestic church. Autumn can truly bring out a new resolve to improve our lives as summer’s freedom gives way to the structure of fall. For adults, faith formation classes and prayer groups are just forming in parishes. Check out the opportunities. With summer ending, many organizations are gearing up for new volunteers. Contact your local Catholic Charities or Habitat for Humanity to see how you might help out.

Think of the autumn season as a way to discover a new rhythm for your prayer life. If new activities can be scheduled into your daily life, start scheduling in more quality time for prayer. Fall is the perfect time to begin a 34-week Ignatian retreat, because if you start in September, the retreat -in-real-life schedule will conform to the liturgical year.

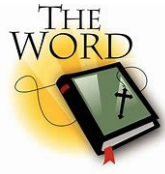

For the children in your house, early to bed and early to rise means there may be more opportunities to be together for short prayer. Say a blessing at breakfast, or a brief morning offering as kids head out for the bus. Try to bring a more regular prayer schedule to your home. Pray with your children as you tuck them in, making the prayer personal and about the day’s events. Make a resolve this fall to bring Christ more prominently into your family’s daily routine. Make the stewardship of your faith and family a commitment as autumn brings a sense of renewal.

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Numbers 11:25-29

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 19:8, 10, 12-14

Second Reading
James 5:11-6

Gospel
Mark 9:38-43, 45, 47-48

FOCUS: If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.

Jesus' words in today's Gospel about being a servant to all are a reminder that the ways of the Lord are not the ways of the world. If we wish to be his disciples, we must have the courage to seek to understand God's ways and strive to love him with all our heart, and to love one another with humility and compassion.

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

The author of Wisdom recounts how the wicked plot to test the just to the point of torture and death.

Second Reading: James 3:16-4:3

In the second reading, James contrasts the human passions that lead to conflicts and other problems in the community with the fruits of the wisdom from above – from God.

Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

Jesus teaches his disciples about his upcoming fate and the importance of being a servant to all.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Loving and Gracious God,
We ask You to open our hearts to your Son's life and ministry and to answer the call to be his disciples.

May our response
be rooted in the Gospel;
may we be ever mindful
of the needs of our communities;
and may our stewardship flow from a profound sense of gratitude for Your many blessings.

By the gift of the Holy Spirit,
empower and inspire us
to respond in a way that brings hope to others and reveals the love that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

We ask this in His Name,
who is Lord forever and ever.

Amen.

Beloved pastor of Saint Pius X Catholic Church, Greensboro, North Carolina and friend of ICSC.

❖ ANNOUNCEMENTS #4 ❖

WHAT IS PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY?

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor priesthood in the United States. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the priesthood in the life of the Church as a central one. This nationwide event is coordinated and sponsored by the US Council of Serra International.

When is Priesthood Sunday celebrated?

Priesthood Sunday is celebrated on the last Sunday of September.

Note: Parishes may choose to celebrate Priesthood Sunday on another Sunday when it is convenient for them. *AT OLM, WE CELEBRATE PRIESTHOOD SUNDAY ON SEPTEMBER 29 WITH FELLOWSHIP.

Why is Priesthood Sunday important?

Catholics are invited to observe Vatican-backed worldwide events, namely, World Day of Prayer for Vocations and World Day for Consecrated Life. In the United States, we also have National Vocation Awareness Week and National Catholic Sisters Week. Priesthood Sunday, however, specifically honors priests, without whom the Mass could not be offered, and Sacraments could not be celebrated. More than the other events listed above, Priesthood Sunday is a more personal one for parishes and organizations with a chaplain. It is for those who cultivate close working relationships with their priests and therefore could benefit from a special day to express their gratitude. It's a chance to thank and honor priests in unique ways.

It is essential to note that the number of priests and ordinations in the United States has steadily declined in the past 50 years. Meanwhile, the number of parishes without a resident priest pastor has sharply increased in the same period of time. (See the official statistics from the Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate (CARA) here.) The men who answer the call to priesthood are special indeed, and they are working harder than ever before.

How do I celebrate Priesthood Sunday in my parish?

You can make your Priesthood Sunday observation as elaborate or as simple as you wish. From a special prayer service to a feast, to a spiritual bouquet, to songs from children, your parish can tailor the event to suit their own style. Parish vocation ministries should take the lead in coordinating the celebrations.

Click here to download a parish planning guide designed to help you coordinate Priesthood Sunday events in your church or organization.

Tips and Ideas for Priesthood Sunday in Your ParishParish Bulletin:

Promote Priesthood Sunday in your parish bulletin at least four weeks in advance with details about how parishioners can participate and what they can expect at Mass on that day.

On Priesthood Sunday, feature a photo of your pastor and resident priests on the cover of the parish bulletin along with some words of tribute collected from parishioners and a brief bio inside.

(Contd.)

❖ ANNOUNCEMENTS #5 ❖

(Contd.)

Include the pictures, names and contact information of pastors and other priests who have moved on to different parishes or who have retired so parishioners can keep in touch.

At Church:

Print a special blessing for your priests in the parish bulletin or on cards distributed in the pews. Have the congregation extend their hands over the priests and recite the blessing in unison at the end of the service on Priesthood Sunday. Click here to download a blessing prayer for priests.

For a week or two leading up to Priesthood Sunday, leave cards and pens in the back of the church for parishioners to fill out with words of gratitude and tribute for your priests. Framed photos of priests labeled with their names is a nice touch (and a handy reminder for proper spelling). Don't forget to include a box or basket to hold completed cards. These can be presented to the priests on Priesthood Sunday along with the collection or assembled into a book.

Decorate the church with the Priesthood Sunday logo. Download it here.

Kids Can Help, Too:

Parish children can collaborate on a large-scale mural, collage, or other artwork to honor their priests. If your parish is attached to a school, part of religion classes leading up to Priesthood Sunday could be devoted to learning about priesthood: for example, the vestments, the priest's role in the sacraments, etc. Younger children could benefit from free coloring pages found online (such as are found here and here).

Let the children interview priests during class time before they create cards or other art for him. They can ask him questions like, "What is your favorite color?" "What is your favorite food?" or "What do you love to do when you are not working?"

Older children can participate in an essay contest about priesthood. The winning essay can be read aloud at Mass and/or printed in the bulletin.

Publicity:

If your priest has a unique vocation story, pitch it to the local diocesan paper and see if they will write up an article to coincide with Priesthood Sunday.

Let your diocesan paper know what you are planning to do for Priesthood Sunday and be sure to send them photos of the celebration.

Consider buying an advertisement in the diocesan paper with the photos and names of your parish priests along with the number of their years of service and an expression of gratitude.

Don't Forget Retired Priests:

Be sure to send gifts and wishes to priest who now live in retirement homes. Take them out for a meal or bring them back to the parish for Priesthood Sunday and whatever reception you may plan there after Mass.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

HŌ'EU'EU EUKALIKIA

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

10TH NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: A TASTE OF HEAVEN (part 2)

I believe that one of the reasons the event was so special was that it was a congress and not a conference. A congress is a gathering of the Church for worship, centered on the experience of the liturgy and prayer before the Eucharist. The purpose of the congress is to express our love and gratitude to the Lord for the gift of the Eucharist and to grow in that love. This is why we had the beautiful focus on repentance and conversion of heart, so we can all grow deeper in union with the Lord. I was so grateful for the way the speakers kept the kerygma, the proclamation of the good news of salvation, at the center, inviting all to repentance and also showing how the Eucharist is central to this proclamation of the redeeming love of Christ. I believe it helped us see how the Eucharist, the source and summit of our Christian life, is also the source and summit of evangelization.

(Lifted from Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens, A Taste of Heaven, Our Sunday Visitor, p. 18, September 8-14, 2024).*

In implementing the Eucharistic Revival program, the Dioceses and parishes have their point persons. In the Diocese of Honolulu, it is Fr. Alfred Omar Guerrero and in OLM Parish, Fran Kovaloff is the point person. Fr. Ese'ese "Ace" Tui is the head of the Eucharistic Revival Task Force in the Diocese.*
