SECOND COLLECTION: CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

*September 7 & 8 in all Masses

This weekend, the Diocese will take up the National Collection for The Catholic University of America (CUA). CUA is a national research university in the heart of Washington, D.C. By giving to the collection, you are supporting future Catholic leaders, both religious and lay, who are being formed by an exceptional faith-rooted education. The University's various research and training initiatives support dioceses and parishes in responding to the most pressing needs of the faithful. It offers a master's program in Ecclesial Administration and Management and a program that prepares recent graduates to serve as campus ministers. Please give generously.

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Isaiah 50:5-9

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116:1-6, 8-9

Second Reading

James 2:14-18

Gospel

Mark 8:27-35

FOCUS: God's loving presence is with us always.

God is with us, intimately close, just as Jesus was to the man in the Gospel today. In the Mass, Jesus reaches out to touch us and offer his healing. May we always be granted an open heart and clear vision to see his loving presence among us.

First Reading: Isaiah 35:4-7

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah speaks for the Lord, saying to the frightened to be strong and fear not!

Second Reading: James 2:1-5

In the Letter from Saint James, we are encouraged to show no partiality because God chose the poor in the world to be heirs of the kingdom.

Gospel: Mark 7:31-37

In the Gospel, Jesus heals a deaf man with a speech impediment and all are exceedingly astonished.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

ST. PAUL'S THEOLOGY OF GIVING: A BRIEF REFLECTION

Usually, homilies, reflections and presentations on the second letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians (2 Cor 8:7-15) often get relegated to Stewardship Sundays, diocesan annual appeal weekends and parish fundraising campaigns. But while this reading for the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time certainly encourages us to think about what we do with our own financial resources and, therefore, should inform our acts of generosity in our Church, Paul introduces us to the deep spiritual dimension of giving.

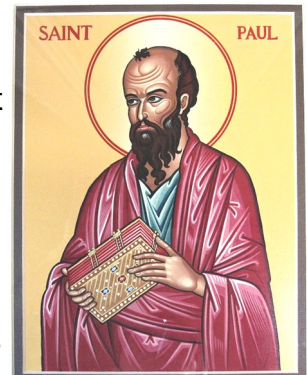

The text is chiefly concerned with Paul's collection for the Church in Jerusalem which we can see from his letters is a massive campaign. In his letter to the Galatians (2:10), Paul indicates that concern for the poor in Jerusalem has been a part of his ministry from the beginning, and in his letter to the Romans (15:25-26), Paul views this collection as a genuine service to the poor. Paul maintains that how disciples of Jesus use their money is a reflection of what they believe about God and the actions of the Holy Spirit in the world. For Paul, how we use our money sends a message to others about how committed we are to the Lord.

Paul encouraged Gentile Christian communities to collect money for the Jewish Christian believers in Jerusalem whom they had likely never met.

Ironically, based on the frustration Paul expresses in his letter to the Galatians over the exclusive dining practices of some of the Jerusalem leaders, it is not clear how well these Gentile Christians would have even been welcomed by the Jerusalem community. Yet, this collection binds the Jerusalem community to the Gentile Christians who are now serving as their benefactors and hence, proclaiming the Gospel in a unique and creative way.

To use Paul's language, this collection shows the communities' indebtedness to one another and ultimately to the Holy Spirit who is guiding them. The Corinthians are urged to give generously with the knowledge that God has already provided abundantly for them for this very purpose (2 Cor. 9:8). Let us reflect this week on how the Holy Spirit might be inviting us to consider our own giving patterns in order to proclaim the Gospel in our world today.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord God,
As we prepare for the transitions of August;
of routines becoming regular,
signs of schools beginning to emerge,
and traffic patterns getting heavier,
help us to appreciate the sacred rhythms in our lives.

Give us the wisdom to make our hearts be still,
much as the August wind is still,
so that we may listen to the gentle words you speak to us.
Help us understand that you alone
are the source of every good gift,
of the vast array of our universe,
and the mystery of each human life.

And help us see that we are called to be good stewards
of all that you have entrusted to us;
tending them faithfully and responsibly
so they may ultimately be returned to you with increase.

In this month of August
while a measure of summer's stillness remains,
speak to our hearts,
guide us in your Son's ways,
and through your Spirit,
give us the strength to proclaim your justice and peace
in our everyday words and deeds.

We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII

LETTER FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES HAWAII

Dear Fr. Edgar,

Thank you for your parish gift of $815.72 received on 8/26/2024 in support of Catholic Charities Sunday. Your partnership helps those in our community with the greatest need in countless ways, such as with housing assistance for families and individuals, supporting foster youth, providing mental health counseling, keeping seniors healthy and active, and much more.

You have made a significant difference in the lives of those who depend on our services. We are incredibly grateful for your partnership and the trust you have placed in us.

Together, we continue the ministry of Jesus in serving people in need.

Mahalo nui loa and God bless!

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

A TASTE OF HEAVEN

Both young and old, laity and religious, and priests and bishops commented that the days of the 10th National Eucharistic Congress were so blessed and such an experience of joy-filled unity that they felt like it was a foretaste of heaven.

The two most powerful moments for me personally were when I got to carry our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and lead people in prayer before him. Both the opening Holy Hour and Saturday's Eucharistic procession were moments of experiencing the Lord's profound love and delight for his people.

To see 60,000 people – the largest procession in this country in almost 50 years – gathered to show their love and honor for Jesus Christ was powerful. It was as if the whole Church was in procession toward heaven: the various orders of Knights and Ladies, the First Communion children, over 900 women Religious, hundreds of seminarians and deacons, over 1,200 priests, and 200 bishops.

As we processed through the streets to see the people singing and praying, many of them with tears, it was overwhelming. And as we continued, the people joined the procession until all 60,000 of us ended up at the memorial where we had Benediction. What a gift to show our love for Jesus Christ in this way and to experience that he does in fact walk with us on our own pilgrimage to heaven.

OAHU COUNCIL OF FILIPINO CATHOLIC CLUBS ANNUAL CHARITY QUEEN FESTIVAL & SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS

September 1, 2024 > 4:00 PM

Congratulations OLM FCC

On September 1, the OLM FCC hosted the huge gathering of the Oahu Council of Filipino Catholic Clubs (OCFCC) on their 65th Annual Charity Queen Festival & Scholarship Awards. Close to 300 officers and delegates came in carpools and busloads representing the 12 member parish units - *Our Lady of the Mount, Kalihi Valley * Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Ewa Beach * Our Lady of Sorrows, Wahiawa * Sacred Heart, Waianae * St. Anthony, Kalihi Kai * St. John Apostle & Evangelist, Mililani * St. John the Baptist, Kalihi Uka * St. Joseph, Waipahu * St. Jude, Kapolei * St. Michael, Waiialua * St. Rock, Kahuku * St. Theresa Co-Cathedral, Honolulu*.

The event started with the procession of the Royal Court and coronation of the Charity Queen Norma Bautista Daligcon of OLM FCC by her daughter Sharlene Agustin and Pastor Fr. Edgar Brillantes. Queen Norma I then crowned the Blessed Virgin Mary with her escort and spouse, Adriano Daligcon, followed with floral offering by all present. The solemn Mass followed with Fr. Edgar Brillantes, as presider and homilist, and concelebrated by Fr. Edmund Barut, Pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church, Ewa Beach; Fr. Eric Castro, Pastor of St. Joseph Church, Waipahu; and Fr. Marvin Bearis, OFM Cap from Ewa Beach but ministering in Connecticut.

After Mass, everyone proceeded to the parish hall and partook of the buffet dinner. Entertainment numbers in songs and dances were presented by the parish delegates. The pageant followed with the entrance of the royal Court of the Queen and the Princesses escorted by their spouses. Their respective FCC Unit President handed them their trophies and the 2019 Queen of Charity from St. Joseph Unit, Flordeliza Garcia, turned over the scepter and royal cape.

In the program, Fe Go, the president of the OLM FCC Unit, delivered the Welcome Address and Acknowledgments. Becky Jandoc and Jennifer Jandoc directed the program and Royal Court pageantry. Invited guest speakers were Dr. Melvin Paul Palalay, a cancer specialist, Philippine Consul-General Hon. Grace Bulos, Fr. Edmund Barut, OCFCC Spiritual Director, and Sr. Rosalinda Barrozo, MM, Associate Spiritual Director. Amelia Jodar, the OCFCC President, delivered the closing remarks. Ben Gutierrez, TV anchor and weather forecaster, was master of ceremonies (emcee).

This year's OCFCC event is particularly exciting for the OLM FCC unit because the last time it won the queenship and hosted the Charity Queen Festival was 37 years ago when Jennifer Jandoc was the crowned winner. The main purpose of the event is to raise funds for the awarding of scholarship grants to deserving students who are children or grandchildren of FCC members. The Scholarship Awards were presented to the qualified students in High School and College who applied. Recognition was accorded and prizes were likewise given to the top sellers of the fundraising in each parish. The top sellers from OLM FCC were Olivia Mita and Norma Daligcon. Fe Go led her members in an aggressive fundraising that garnered them the coveted Charity Queen seat for Norma Daligcon in a highly competitive race among 9 vying candidates.

Congratulations for a successful celebration and we pray for God's blessings on the OLM FCC and all Units throughout the Diocese. They are preparing for their 74th DCFCC Annual Convention in Hilo come November. May they remain faithful to their mission of serving the Church and promoting the Catholic faith. May there be more Filipinos and parishioners, young and old, who would be inspired to join them. Mabuhay ang Filipino Catholic Club!
