OCTOBER IS ROSARY MONTH

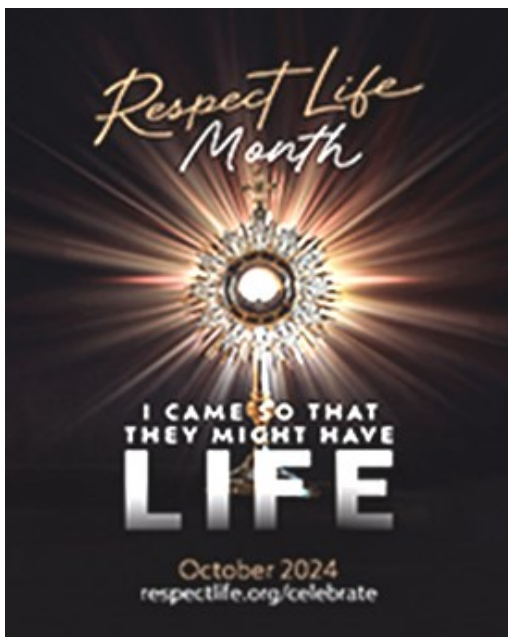

Let's pray the rosary as a family for peace in the world

OCTOBER IS RESPECT LIFE MONTH

We pray for the protection of all human life, especially that of the unborn, the elderly, persons with disabilities, the terminally-ill and those threatened, trafficked and abused.

Word of Life for October

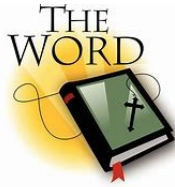

Word of Life is a monthly resource from the USCCB's Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities. Each month includes resources for print and are adaptable for digital efforts including Feature of the Month, Intercessions for Life, Bulletin Quotes, and Bulletin Art. Learn more at: www.respectlife.org.

The 2024 Respect Life poster features the Eucharist and Jesus' message in John 10:10, "I came so that they might have life." The placement of "Respect Life" beneath the verse conveys that Jesus' message and our response to it inherently include respect for human life. The design also reflects the importance of grounding efforts on behalf of life in the Eucharist.

Next Sunday's Reading

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Isaiah 53:10-11

Second Reading

Hebrews 4:4-16

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 33:4-5, 18-20, 22

Gospel

Mark 10:35-45

FOCUS: Seek Christ above all else.

Jesus is the Word of God, living and effective, able to discern the thoughts and reflections of our hearts. Jesus is the wisdom of God, more precious than power, riches, or beauty. To follow Christ is to place him at the center of our lives, to seek him before all the good things of this world, including ties to family, friends, and colleagues.

First Reading: Wisdom 7:7-11

In the first reading, Solomon prayed for wisdom and received all good things in her company.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:12-13

The Letter to the Hebrews says the word of God is living and effective, able to discern thoughts of the heart.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

In the Gospel, a man asks Jesus what he must do to inherit eternal life. Jesus tells him to sell what he has, give to the poor, and follow him.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

STEWARDSHIP SAINT FOR OCTOBER: SAINT JOHN XXIII

Saint John XXIII is arguably the most beloved pope in the history of the Catholic Church. He touched people around the world in a way no other pope had ever done, earning him the affectionate title of "Good Pope John."

He was born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli, the third of 13 children, to poor tenant farmers in a village near Bergamo, Italy, about 25 miles northeast of Milan. As a child, he was very devout and showed much academic promise. He completed his priestly formation at the diocesan seminary at Bergamo and was ordained in 1904. The bishop of Bergamo appointed Roncalli to be his secretary and to teach Church history at the seminary.

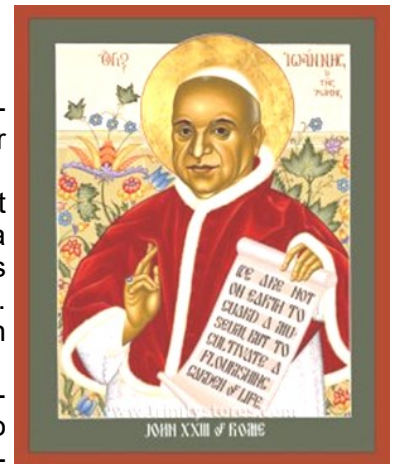

During World War I, Roncalli was first conscripted into service as a hospital orderly, then a chaplain. Over the next 20 years Father Roncalli would be called to several Vatican posts. In 1921 he was appointed the national director of the Propagation of the Faith and soon thereafter he became a Vatican diplomat, serving in Bulgaria, Turkey, Greece and then France during World War II. As an archbishop, Roncalli established friendly relations with the Orthodox churches and worked to prevent the deportation of Jews during the German occupation of Greece. After the war years, he served as the Vatican's first permanent observer at UNESCO (the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural organization).

Expecting that he would hold office only temporarily, Cardinal Roncalli was elected pope on October 28, 1958, just shy of his 77th birthday. He surprised everyone, however, when he began breaking papal traditions. He preached at his own coronation, insisting that he was not a prince but simply "a priest, a father and a good shepherd." He made it a habit of visiting local parishes, prisons, hospitals, convalescent homes, schools, universities and charitable organizations.

On January 25, 1959, he announced that he would convene what would become the 21st ecumenical council of the Church, referring to it as a "new Pentecost." He opened the Second Vatican Council on October 11, 1962, insisting that it had not been convened to refute errors, but to update the Church and to "let some fresh air in." He set the Catholic Church on a whole new pastoral plane, emphasizing the role of the laity, the collegiality of bishops, the authentic faith and goodness of non-Catholic Christians, and the dignity of all human beings. His address to open the council was full of hope for the future of the Church. The encyclicals of Pope John XXIII emphasized world peace, the unity of the Church, social justice and human rights.

He was diagnosed with stomach cancer in the fall of 1962 and passed away on June 3, 1963 with the whole world mourning his loss. He was beatified on September 3, 2000 and canonized along with John Paul II on April 17, 2014. His feast day is October 11.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY - Collection on October 26/27

“Go and invite everyone to the banquet.”

World Mission Sunday is celebrated on the second-to-last Sunday of October. This year it is on October 20. It is a day set by the Catholic Church to remember and support the mission work being done around the world. This special day is crucial for sustaining the Church’s outreach in over 1,150 mission territories. Catholics participate in this universal solidarity moment. Everyone plays a pivotal role in embracing the missionary spirit. Participating in World Mission Sunday is a tangible way for Catholics to live out the Great Commission, bringing the message of Christ to the ends of the earth. We are called not only to pray for missionaries or send pennies to the missions, but also to become missionaries in our own right. As set by the Diocese, at OLM, the collection will be on October 26/27, 2024.

Thank you for your assistance and support in extending the invitation to the banquet to all.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Loving and Gracious God,
 We ask You to open our hearts to your Son’s life and ministry and to answer the call to be his disciples.
 May our response be rooted in the Gospel;
 may we be ever mindful of the needs of our communities;
 and may our stewardship flow from a profound sense of gratitude for Your many blessings.
 By the gift of the Holy Spirit, empower and inspire us to respond in a way that brings hope to others and reveals the love that comes to us through Jesus Christ.
 We ask this in His Name, who is Lord forever and ever.
 Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ROSARY CONGRESS

On October 7, Our Lady of the Mount Church participated in the 2024 Diocesan Eucharistic Rosary Congress (ERC) relay. The purpose of the ERC is to assist the faithful to fulfill the message of Our Lady of Fatima.

We started the 6-hour period at 6:00am with the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament and subsequently the praying of the rosary. At 7:00am, the regular Mass was celebrated after which the hourly adoration and praying of the rosary was resumed. The different parish ministries and organizations led and participated in the event. When the Knights of Columbus took their turn to lead, their brother knights in other councils came to join them. We culminated the holy event with a solemn Benediction at 12:00noon. This was followed by a hearty fellowship lunch at the hall which the coordinators of the Eucharistic Rosary Congress, Gloria Rodrigo and Fran Kovaloff, prepared and served.

❖ ANNOUNCEMENTS #2 ❖

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

10TH NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: A TASTE OF HEAVEN (part 3)

The congress was an expression of the two themes that have marked the National Eucharistic Revival, which came from Pope Francis' exhortation Evangelii Gaudium – encounter and mission. From the beginning of the Eucharistic Revival we wanted to inspire a movement of Catholics across the United States who are healed, converted, formed and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist – and who are then sent out on mission "for the life of the world."

We experienced these things at the National Eucharistic Congress. We saw both physical and spiritual healings, we saw hearts being more deeply converted to him, we had incredible opportunities for formation, and all who came or participated virtually experienced a spirit of deep unity in the gift of the Church.

What made the National Eucharistic Congress so powerful? When the Church is centered on Jesus, and proclaiming his salvation, when the Church prays and honors the incredible gift of Jesus Christ truly present in the Eucharist, God reveals his power. For me, it was a new and deeper experience of God's desire to bless his Church. I found myself repenting for my lack of faith that God can work so deeply in my heart and in the hearts of others. It made me wonder just how beautiful eternity will be.

(Lifted from Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens, A Taste of Heaven, Our Sunday Visitor, p. 18, September 8-14, 2024.) Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens is bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, Minnesota, and chairman of the board of National Eucharistic Congress Inc,*

In implementing the Eucharistic Revival program, the Dioceses and parishes have their point persons. In the Diocese of Honolulu, it is Fr. Alfred Omar Guerrero and in OLM Parish, Fran Kovaloff is the point person. Fr. Ese'ese "Ace" Tui is the head of the Eucharistic Revival Task Force in the Diocese.*
