Next Sunday's Reading Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Jeremiah 31:7-9

Second Reading
Hebrews 5:1-6

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 126:1-6

Gospel
Mark 10:46-52

FOCUS: The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. In contrast to the pressures to seek power, comfort, and fame, our Church proclaims humble service. We are called to gaze on our king, enthroned on a cross, ornamented with wounds. We are told in no uncertain terms that the only path to greatness in the kingdom of God is the path of self-giving love.

First Reading: Isaiah 53:10-11

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah prophesies about the servant who justifies many through his suffering.

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:4-16

In the Letter to the Hebrews, the author writes that we have a great high priest who sympathizes with our weaknesses.

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

In the Gospel, Jesus says that the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve.

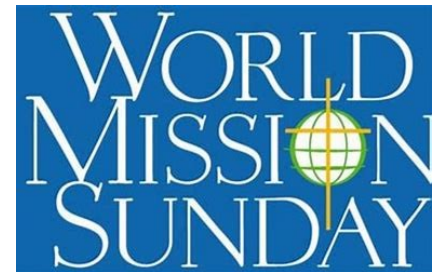

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR WORLD MISSION DAY 2024 – “Go and invite everyone to the banquet” (cf. Matt. 22:9)

Today, the Vatican released Pope Francis's message for World Mission Sunday 2024. In the text, the Pope reflects on the Gospel parable of the Wedding Banquet, where the king tells his servants “Go therefore to the thoroughfares and invite to the marriage feast as many as you find”.

February 2, 2024

By Ines San Martin

“Go and invite!” Mission as a tireless outreach to invite others to the Lord's banquet

Pope Francis tells us Mission is a tireless outreach to invite others to the Lord's banquet:

His Holiness reminds us that mission implies a continuous outreach to all people, not only by going out, but also by inviting each one in a personal way to meet the Lord.

We must go to the ends of the earth, with perseverance and without forgetting that we must incarnate a tireless commitment to the mission of evangelization.

“Everyone” The universal mission of Christ's disciples in the fully synodal and missionary Church

The universal mission of Christ's disciples in the fully synodal and missionary Church:

In a divided world, the Gospel remains a unifying force, calling people to meet and rejoice in harmony in the midst of diversity. Mission includes a special concern for the marginalized, echoing the parable's invitation to “all, good and bad.”

It is crucial to remember that we are in a period calling for a renewal of strength and to be a fully synodal and missionary Church, affirming that synodality and mission are interconnected.

“To the wedding feast.” The eschatological and Eucharistic dimension of the mission of Christ and the Church

In the parable, the banquet represents a symbol of the definitive salvation in the Kingdom of God:

The invitation to the banquet is linked to the Eucharistic table, where believers share the Body and Blood of Christ, anticipating the final banquet.

The symbolism of the Eucharist, an essential sacrament, paired with the urgency of the evangelization for all peoples in this parable is a strong reminder of the importance of our mission.

Towards the end of his message, the Pope recommends to all dioceses worldwide the service of the Pontifical Mission Societies as the primary means “by which Catholics are instilled with a truly universal and missionary outlook from childhood, and [as] a means of effectively collecting funds for all missions, each according to its needs.”

As in all his messages, the Holy Father concludes by invoking the intercession of Mary, who played a fundamental role at the wedding feast in Cana. Mary serves as a guiding force in the Church's evangelizing mission, and her maternal intercession is sought out by Christ's disciples in the present.

Join us in renewing our mission daily, in anticipation of World Mission Day.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

We stand before you,
Holy Spirit
conscious of our sinfulness, but aware that we gather in your name.
Come to us, remain with us,
and enlighten our hearts.
Give us light and strength to know your will,
to make it our own,
and to live it in our lives. Guide us by your wisdom,
support us by your power,
for you are God,
sharing the glory of Father and Son.
You desire justice for all:
enable us to uphold the rights of others;
do not allow us to be misled by ignorance;
or corrupted by fear or favor.
Unite us to yourself in the bond of love
and keep us faithful to all that is true.
As we gather in your name
may we temper justice with love,
so that all our decisions may be pleasing to you,
and earn the reward promised to good and faithful servants.
You live and reign with the Father and the Son,
God, forever and ever.
Amen.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH IN THE STATE OF HAWAII
WITNESS TO JESUS

October 15, 2024
Memorial of St. Theresa of Avila

Dear Brothers and Sisters in the Diocese of Honolulu,

Peace be with you!

St. Theresa of Avila was known for her personal holiness, but also for her vision and hard work in reforming the Carmelite Order, which had become very lax. Some applauded her efforts, while others opposed them; but she knew, through her prayerful discernment, that this reform was the will of God, even though it was difficult to achieve.

As we approach the 2024 election, we know that there is much to be reformed in our own country. We have lost a respect for life in all its stages. We have allowed marriage and solid parenting as the basis for a stable society to erode. We have the heavy challenge of not only housing the homeless but of addressing the root causes of homelessness. Our civil disagreement with one another has become toxic, demonizing of those who do not agree with us. While religious freedom once prevailed, there was a general sense that religion was respected for its thoughtful and experienced service of the community, and this, too, has eroded.

We are soon to experience one of the most important elections for the future of our country. It is our duty as followers of Jesus to take our civic duties seriously. We are to be good stewards of our beloved land by voting, so that those we elect can embody the values that will truly reform our country. We need to carefully prepare for voting by prayerfully discerning the Lord's will and applying what we discern on the ballot. And even after the election we need to continually pray for our elected leaders and stay engaged with them, so that the gift of democracy that has been given to us can truly flourish.

Please pray, discern, and VOTE! St. Theresa, pray for us!

Sincerely yours in Christ,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Larry Silva' with a cross symbol to the left.

Most Reverend Larry Silva
Bishop of Honolulu

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

DIOCESE OF HONOLULU - EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

10TH NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS: A TASTE OF HEAVEN (final part 4)

I am keenly aware that many people shouldered incredible sacrifices for this event to be so spiritual-ly fruitful. Most of those sacrifices were made by a dedicated, mission-driven team of lay people, led by National Eucharistic Congress CEO Timothy Glemkowski. Without the hard work, spiritual depth and incredible gifting of these people, the event would have been very different.

Tim has decided to leave the NEC and go back to his first love, parish renewal. He will now lead the Amazing Parish apostolate. The NEC will be led by Jason Shanks, formerly of Our Sunday Visitor, going forward. We are grateful to Tim for his incredible leadership which shaped this event so profoundly.

As we made clear at the end of the congress, the mission is just beginning. The mission happens when those of us who have been touched by this National Eucharistic Revival decide to take up Jesus' call to share it. In this third year of the revival, we must take this message and experience of love outside the walls of the church, to those who need it most. I hope that many will join the call to help evangelize through our "Walk with One" initiative. Learn more and find resources at www.eucharisticrevival.org/walk-with-one.

If you missed the congress or would like to see more of the talks and videos, they are all available here: www.eucharisticcongress.org/streaming.

Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens is bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, Minnesota, and chairman of the board of National Eucharistic Congress Inc.

*(Lifted from Bishop Andrew H. Cozzens, A Taste of Heaven, Our Sunday Visitor, p. 18, September 8-14, 2024). Bishop Andrew H Cozzens is bishop of the Diocese of Crookston, Minnesota, and chairman of the board of National Eucharistic Congress Inc.

*In implementing the Eucharistic Revival program, the Diocese and parishes have their point persons. In the Diocese of Honolulu, it is Fr. Alfred Omar Guerrero and in OLM Parish, Fran Kovaloff is the point person, Fr. Ese'ese "Ace" Tui is the head of the Eucharistic Revival Task Force in the Diocese.
