Next Sunday's Reading

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

First Reading

Daniel 7:13-14

Second Reading

Revelation 1:5-8

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 93:1-2, 5

Gospel

John 18:33-37

FOCUS: The end of the world is coming; let us prepare.

No one knows when the world will end, but if we wait to prepare for it, it may be too late. When we ask for forgiveness and receive God's mercy, we are preparing and living for him. If we live for him, then we will live on forever when the Lord returns. Choosing not to live for him results in disgrace when the end comes. The Lord does not desire that for us – he loves us and wants us to be with him. It's a free, open, and generous invitation. Take hold of it!

First Reading: Daniel 12:1-3

Daniel prophesies of a great prince, Michael, arising as a guardian of the people. Some of the dead will awaken and live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace.

Second Reading: Hebrews: 10:11-14, 18

In the second reading, the author writes of the one [who] offered one sacrifice for sins, and took his seat forever at the right hand of God.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks to his disciples about the days after that tribulation, when they will see "the Son of Man coming in the clouds" with great power and glory.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONBE A GOOD STEWARD OF THANKSGIVING DAY

Your Thanksgiving Day can be more than just enjoying a great meal and turning on the television to search for the traditional parades and football games. How about expressing your stewardship of this day in a more meaningful way? Here are some suggestions for making Thanksgiving an opportunity for expressing our gratitude to the Lord in creative ways:

- Write "I'm thankful for you" cards and give them out or e-mail them on Thanksgiving (or mail them beforehand).
- Share your Thanksgiving meal with someone who is alone this Thanksgiving. Look for someone, such as a neighbor, co-worker, fellow parishioner, college student or armed services personnel who may be separated from family and ask them to join in your Thanksgiving dinner.
- Volunteer your time at a soup kitchen to help prepare and serve Thanksgiving dinners to others.
- Visit the sick. Check with hospitals, assisted living facilities or nursing homes in the area to see if there are volunteer opportunities to visit with patients or residents on that day.
- Practice ecumenism! Many parishes make Thanksgiving an opportune time to join in ecumenical services with other Christian worshipping communities, or inter-faith activities. Find one nearby and experience something new and enriching.
- Help someone if you can. Extend your generosity and blessings beyond your own family. Be part of an adopt-a-family effort, help distribute food baskets, or bring canned foods or clothing to St. Vincent de Paul centers.
- Take a walk. Find a place to enjoy God's gift of creation. Head out the door for a refreshing walk. Invite family, friends or others to share the experience too.
- Most important! Take advantage of the Thanksgiving holidays to focus on what you're grateful for and the things you appreciate about yourself and others. It is an ideal time to remember and to celebrate the many blessings in our lives.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR NOVEMBER

Gracious and loving God,
 As the autumn season continues its transformation;
 and the days become shorter,
 the earth cooler;
 as we anticipate joining family and friends
 in joyful celebration on Thanksgiving Day,
 we pause to give You thanks and praise
 for the abundant blessings You have bestowed upon us:
 For life and health, safety and comfort, food and nourishment,
 we are sincerely grateful.
 Through your Spirit, open our hearts
 so that we may be even better stewards of these rich and unmerited gifts.
 Show us how to be a blessing for the poor,
 sick, lonely and all who suffer.
 And help us nurture the gift of faith,
 revealed to us by your Son, Jesus Christ, our greatest gift,
 who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

 causeth through us
 thanksgiving to God.

DCFCC CONVENTION

The 74th Convention of the DCFCC (Diocesan Congress of Filipino Catholic Clubs) was held on November 8-10, 2024 at the Hilo Hawaiian Hotel. Around 200 delegates from the Councils of Kauai, Oahu, Maui and Big Island comprising more or less 40 parish units were in attendance. They included priests, deacons and nuns who are the units' Spiritual Directors – Fr. Eric Castro, MSS of St. Joseph Waipahu; Fr. Arnel Soriano of Annunciation Parish, Waimea; Fr. Ferdinand Tomo, SSS of St. Joseph, Hilo; Fr. Falaniko Atonio of Malia Pula O Kalani, Keaukaha, Hilo; Sr. Rosalinda Barrozo, MM, DCFCC Co-Spiritual Director; Sr. Ursolina and Sr. Olivia, both Missionaries of Faith; and Deacon Andy Ragasa of St. Catherine Parish in Kapaa, Kauai. Among the Oahu delegates were the OLM FCC officers and members led by Fe Go, Norma Daligcon, Aida Isidro, Olivia Mita, Teresa Siruno, Beth Pisbe and Adriano Daligcon. OLM Pastor, Fr. Edgar Brillantes, attended as Spiritual Director of the DCFCC.

The convention was a combination of the celebration of the Holy Mass, devotional praying of the Rosary and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, keynote speech, workshops, Administrative Board and Membership business meetings and socials. The convention theme was - "We Adore you Christ Jesus, Our Hostia. You are our Source of Love and Life." The keynote speech was given by Fr. Falaniko Atonio, the Pastor of Malia Puka O Kalani in Keaukaha, Hilo. The workshop was facilitated by Brandon Perea and his family, lay ministry leaders of St. Joseph, Hilo. For socials, the first night was a Masquerade Ball where participants wore masks and the second night was Gala Filipiniana where there were competitions in Filipino Barong for the gentlemen and Kimona and Terno for the ladies. The OLM delegates smartly joined the competitions and Aida Isidro emerged as the winner in the Terno category. The awardees for the Fr. Ernest Claes Membership Award and the Msgr. Osmundo Calip Founder's Award were also announced and presented. Lastly, the reigning Charity Queen of the Oahu Council of Filipino Catholic Clubs (OCFCC), Norma Daligcon, made the royal march before the assembly, escorted by her spouse, Adriano Daligcon.

The flow of the convention schedule was orderly and smooth, the banquets, meals and accommodations were perfect, the speakers were interesting. Everyone thanked and congratulated the warm, dynamic and hospitable hosts – the officers and members of the Hawaii Council of Filipino Catholic Clubs (HCFCC). A Resolution by the Congress was drafted and presented to them in appreciation for their hard work, determination and dedication as host despite there being only two parish units actively involved. Through the grace of God everything went well that ended well.

For the next DCFCC Convention in 2025, November 21-23, Maui has been announced as the venue. The Maui Council of Filipino Catholic Club (MCFCC) officers of the 75th Convention were presented and took their oath of office on the last social night event. We look forward to be in Maui, God willing, on the 75th (Diamond) Anniversary of the DCFCC.
