† CELEBRATING 154 YEARS AND RENEWING OUR FAITH IN GRATEFUL STEWARDSHIP! †

Pastor
Rev. Fr. Edgar B. Brillantes

The scribes asked Jesus, "Which is the first commandment?: Jesus replied: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. The second is this: You shall love your neighbor as yourself." Mark 12:30-31

NOVEMBER 5 IS ELECTION DAY

An educational effort of the Hawaii Family Forum, a 501(C)(3) organization. We do not endorse or oppose political candidates and/or political parties.

THIS IS IT - LET YOUR VOICE BE HEARD

Dear Friends,

Thank you for your patience over the past few weeks as we've sent out reminders to encourage you to vote. Now, the moment has arrived! The time has come for us to make our voices heard. Voting is more than just a civic duty —it's a chance to stand up for the values that matter most to you and your 'ohana. Every vote is a powerful step toward shaping the future of our communities and preserving the principles we hold dear.

As Election Day approaches, I urge you to:

- Pray for wisdom, guidance, and for our leaders. Need prayer inspiration?
- Be informed about the candidates and issues that will impact our future. Need help finding where your candidates stand?
- Take action by casting your vote! Unsure about the status of your ballot? Check [here].

Remember, every single vote matters, and your involvement is vital. Let's be faithful stewards of this opportunity to bring positive change.

With warmest aloha,

Eva Andrade, President & CEO - Hawaii Family Forum

Next Sunday's Reading

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
1 Kings 17:10-16

Second Reading
Hebrews 9:24-28

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 146:7-10

Gospel
Mark 12:38-44

FOCUS: God's love is the foundation of his law.

The two greatest commandments of which Jesus speaks are rooted in love: The first is to love God; the second is to love others. Both stem from the outpouring of God's pure goodness. If we love God fully and faithfully, and love others as he loves, we cooperate in our own well-being, and come closer to his kingdom.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 6:2-6

In the first reading, Moses instructs the people to love God and keep his commands.

Second Reading: Hebrews 7:23-28

In the second reading, the eternal priesthood of Jesus is contrasted with the earthly Levitical priesthood.

Gospel: Mark 12:28-34

In the Gospel, Jesus speaks of the greatest commandments as the command to love God and the command to love your neighbor as yourself.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

STEWARDSHIP SAINT - SAINT AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO, BISHOP & DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

Saint Augustine was one of the most distinguished theologians in the history of the Church and may have exercised more influence on the shape and direction of doctrines of faith than any other theologian including Saint Thomas Aquinas.

He was born in 354 to Saint Monica, a Christian, and Patricius, a pagan until just before his death. He was registered as a catechumen but not baptized since Baptism at the time was delayed until adulthood. His formal education as a lawyer and rhetorician took place in the North African city of Carthage, a major metropolitan city of the Roman Empire. He entered into a relationship with a woman who bore him a son, and at age 22, started his own school of rhetoric and grammar. At age 29, he and his companion and their son travelled to Rome so he could further his career. He was appointed professor of rhetoric in Milan, the seat of the imperial court.

While in Milan, Augustine became captivated by the eloquent sermons of Saint Ambrose, and after a long interior conflict, vividly described in his Confessions, he was baptized at the Easter Vigil. Augustine was 33 years old.

Augustine's mother, Monica, had followed him to Rome and then to Milan while his companion, after having lived with him for fifteen years, returned to Africa. Augustine's mother died in 387 and his son passed away in 390 at age 17.

During a visit to the African port city of Hippo in 391, Augustine was recognized and acclaimed by the local Christian community and was practically compelled to accept ordination. In 395 he became their bishop and remained bishop of Hippo for the rest of his life, preaching, writing, administering the sacraments and engaging in a broad range of other pastoral activities. He was especially devoted to the care and relief of the poor. He presided over synods and councils, and adjudicated civil as well as ecclesiastical cases.

A prolific writer, Saint Augustine produced a number of major works. They include not only the Confessions, arguably one of the greatest books in Western literature, but also his sermons on the Gospels, Epistles, and Psalms, the De Trinitate ("On the Trinity"), and the De Civitate Dei ("On the City of God"). His writings were especially influential in the development of the doctrines of creation, grace, the sacraments and the Church. On Christian stewardship, he insisted: "Find out how much God has given you and from it take what you need; the rest is needed by others."

MAHALO FOR YOUR SUPPORT TO THE WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

"GO AND INVITE EVERYONE TO THE BANQUET" (Mt 22:9)

Catholics in every parish around the world are invited to participate in World Mission Sunday through prayer and support for the World Mission Sunday special collection. This collection supports the Pontifical Mission Societies, a worldwide network at the service of the Pope that supports the missions and the Young Churches with prayer and charity.

His Holiness Pope Francis tells us Mission is a tireless outreach to invite others to the Lord's banquet. The Pope reminds us that mission implies a continuous outreach to all people, not only by going out, but also by inviting each one in a personal way to meet the Lord.

We must go to the ends of the earth, with perseverance and without forgetting that we must incarnate a tireless commitment to the mission of evangelization.

Thank you for your generous gift to the Missions.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Loving and Gracious God,

We ask You to open our hearts to your Son's life and ministry and to answer the call to be his disciples.

May our response be rooted in the Gospel;

may we be ever mindful of the needs of our communities;

and may our stewardship flow from a profound sense of gratitude for Your many blessings. By the gift of the Holy Spirit, empower and inspire us to respond in a way that brings hope to others and reveals the love that comes to us through Jesus Christ.

We ask this in His Name, who is Lord forever and ever.

Amen.

PICTORIALS #2*PASTOR'S BIRTHDAY

With gratitude to the Lord of Life, Fr. Edgar joyfully celebrated his 70th birthday on Wednesday, October 30. A Thanksgiving Mass was first celebrated and followed by a hearty dinner. His fellow priests – Fr. Greg Honorio (Vicar for Clergy), Fr. Manny Hewe (Vicar Forane & Pastor of St. Theresa Co-Cathedral), Fr. Arlan Intal, (pastor of St. Anthony Church), Fr. Leonard Tubana, (Administrator of Mount Carmel Church in Waikane) - and parishioners from OLM and from his previous assignments, including townmates in the Philippines came to greet and rejoice with him. Fr. Edgar thanks his parishioners and everyone for such tremendous gesture of friendship, welcome and acceptance. Such fellowship and gaiety with singing and dancing, eating and drinking, truly bring people together and evokes intense feelings of striving to be better in ministering God's flock like a good shepherd. At 70, Fr. Edgar intends to keep on growing in the love of the Lord and forget about getting older. He invited the people to enjoy together God's immense blessings and at the same time, make ourselves a blessing to everyone. A Blessing Prayer was said by all after Father celebrated his Thanksgiving Mass.
