NOVEMBER 24, 2024 SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

'Deliver us Lord from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days, that by the help of your mercy we may be free from sin and safe from all distress.

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and forever.'

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION THANKSGIVING MASS

November 24: On Christ the King Sunday the Religious Education children and catechists will anticipate and observe Thanksgiving on the Mass at 9:00 AM. Parents and parishioners are invited to join them by bringing a canned item and offer them together with the RE children when they present their gifts and place them in the decorated Thanksgiving boxes at the front of the altar. Thank you and God bless you.

NOVEMBER 28 - THURSDAY > MASS IS AT 9:00 AM A BLESSED AND JOYOUS THANKSGIVING DAY TO EVERYONE IN THE FAMILY

On Thanksgiving Day, every American takes the opportunity to acknowledge all the blessings in our lives and feel grateful for those who have provided them for us.

As people of faith, we recognize that all those blessings ultimately come from God and without God we would have nothing.

So we give thanks to all the people in our lives who have favored us, but ultimately to God, the source of all blessings.

NOVEMBER + Commemoration of the Faithful Departed +

*THE WHOLE MONTH OF NOVEMBER IS DEDICATED TO THE COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED.

Next Sunday's Reading First Sunday of Advent

First Reading
Jeremiah 33:14-16

Second Reading
1 Thessalonians 3:12-42

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 25:4-5, 8-10, 14

Gospel
Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

FOCUS: Jesus is King and Lord of all both now and forever.

The readings from Daniel and the Book of Revelation share an apocalyptic vision of the Son of Man coming on the clouds to rule over all peoples. In John's Gospel, on the other hand, Jesus is already king. His everlasting authority comes from God. For his disciples – those who listen to his voice – eternal life is already possible.

First Reading: Daniel 7:13-14

Daniel sees a vision of the Son of man coming on the clouds, and his kingship will not be destroyed.

Second Reading: Revelation 1:5-8

In the second reading, Jesus is the ruler of the kings of the earth, and he has made us a kingdom of priests. He is coming amid the clouds for all to see.

Gospel: John 18:33-37

In the Gospel, Jesus tells Pilate that his kingdom does not belong to this world.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTIONGRATITUDE: THE HEART OF THANKSGIVING

In the United States, Thanksgiving Day is a holiday that is among the nation's finest national traditions. Indeed, setting a day aside for giving thanks to God is not just a U.S. phenomenon. Canadians have a Thanksgiving Day, and many countries worldwide celebrate harvest festivals that express gratitude to God. For Christian stewards, Thanksgiving Day has special meaning, for we know that gratitude lies at the very heart of stewardship.

A grateful heart heralds the beginning of discipleship and opens the way to our deepest response, the desire to return to God for the bounty of our lives. The French educator Jean Baptiste Massieu put it beautifully: "Gratitude is the memory of the heart." For what do we thank our Creator? The early American colonists, who gave inspiration to the Thanksgiving Day tradition, were thankful for their very survival in a harsh and unforgiving environment. Many of their compatriots were buried in the soil of their new land, far from all that had been cherished and familiar.

It's natural to thank God when things seem to turn out the way we had hoped, when disaster is averted, when life seems filled with abundance. Harder, perhaps, is the ability to thank God for being present to us in times of struggle, seeming failure, illness and death. But, in the heart of the Christian steward, the memory of God's presence is a comfort and a gift all its own. If we take time to reflect on our lives, we often discover that that for which we are most grateful was a gift which we struggled to receive. What came to us in the form of hardship has in hindsight revealed itself as gift. This is why each day's struggles and trials should be met with a heartfelt "thank you."

Meister Eckhart, the 14th century Dominican mystic, wrote, "If the only prayer you ever say is 'thank you,' that will suffice." At first, this seems puzzling. What of praise and petition? But Eckhart knew that the most genuine response, and indeed, the first and most spontaneous response of the heart which has discovered God, is "thank you." Gratitude lies at the beginning of true prayer. As we reflect on this time of thanksgiving, let us be present to those moments when God's gifts were hidden in shadow and remember to be thankful for all.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR NOVEMBER

Gracious and loving God,
 As the autumn season continues its transformation;
 and the days become shorter,
 the earth cooler;
 as we anticipate joining family and friends in joyful celebration on Thanksgiving Day,
 we pause to give You thanks and praise
 for the abundant blessings You have bestowed upon us:
 For life and health, safety and comfort, food and nourishment,
 we are sincerely grateful.
 Through your Spirit, open our hearts
 so that we may be even better stewards of these rich and unmerited gifts.
 Show us how to be a blessing for the poor, sick, lonely and all who suffer.
 And help us nurture the gift of faith,
 revealed to us by your Son, Jesus Christ, our greatest gift,
 who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit,
 God forever and ever.

Amen.

DECREE CONCERNING THE 2024 SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

From Most Reverend Clarence (Larry) Silva, Bishop of Honolulu

General Decree Concerning the 2024 Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin
Mary

While this very important celebration is usually on December 8, since that is a Sunday of Advent this year, all the Masses for December 7/8 must be for the Second Sunday of Advent. The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is transferred to Monday, December 9. Although the Paulist Press Ordo says it is not a day of obligation this year, in order to give due honor to our national patroness, and since the Diocese of Honolulu only observes this Solemnity and the Solemnity of Christmas as holy days of obligation, I hereby decree that the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is to be celebrated on Monday, December 9, 2024, as a HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION in the Diocese of Honolulu. Pastors are to schedule Masses so that all may observe this holy day of obligation and to publicize that it is a holy day of obligation well in advance of December 9. Any Vigil Mass celebrated on Sunday, December 8 is to be a Mass for the Second Sunday of Advent, not for the Immaculate Conception. This decree is to be promulgated as law through publication in the Hawaii Catholic Herald and in the diocesan eNews. Given at the Office of the Bishop on September 26, 2024.
