Pastor's Corner

By Rev. Fr. Edgar B. Brillantes

Next Sunday's Reading

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 90:3-6; 12-14, 17

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

FOCUS: Ask and you will receive.

All of Scripture tells of the necessity of prayer, and Jesus exhorts us to be persistent because something powerful happens in that repetition. As we ask, as we return to the source of mercy and love, we are changed by our encounter with God. God is faithful. God is merciful.

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

In the first reading, Abraham repeatedly intercedes for the people of Sodom and God says he will not destroy the city if there are even ten innocent people there.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul writes that our transgressions have been forgiven by Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

In the Gospel, Jesus teaches his disciples how to pray and tells them to be persistent in prayer. He assures them that the Father will give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him.

PASTOR'S SABBATICAL WILL END SOON

Our Pastor, Fr. Edgar, is coming home on August 2 after his 2-month sabbatical leave. We are anxious to hear stories of his studies and personal spiritual development.

The Bishop in consultation with the Personnel Board provided priests to administer the parish and celebrate the sacraments while Fr. Edgar is away. The Bishop named the newly-ordained priest, Fr. Preston-Jay Castro, and Fr. Khanh Hoang, the Administrative assistant to the Bishop, to cover for the month of June while Fr. Nicholas Apetorgbor, the current Administrator of St. Catherine Church in Kapaa, Kauai covered the month of July. Thank you, Fr. Adrian, Fr. Preston, Fr. Khanh and Fr. Nick! God bless you all!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION FOR LEADERS

STEWARDSHIP: GOODNESS ALWAYS SPREADS

by Leisa Anslinger, Recipient of the 2022 ICSC Christian Stewardship Award

About five years into my parish's stewardship journey, we held a special meeting with our pastoral council and stewardship commission. It was an opportunity to look back at where we had been, and to plan for the future. The conversation turned to the misunderstandings that some still had about the spirituality of stewardship, and to the ways we could improve our stewardship education. In the midst of the discussion, one of our long-standing commission members stunned us when he said, "Well, it really isn't as though God earned the money or the resources I have. I earned those. God may have given me the talents with which to do that, but those things that I own are mine." It was at that moment we all realized how far we had to go in spreading the message of stewardship! We who are dedicated to fostering stewardship as a way of life often find ourselves at junctures in our ministry:

- We begin introducing the spirituality of stewardship yet often find that what do we do in such junctures, words fail us as we try to capture the depths of this way of gratitude and generosity.
- We walk the path of stewardship in the parish or diocese for a while, and find the message "sticks" with some, while others seem happily determined to ignore this call. The call to self-giving love is challenging! As individuals and as parish or diocesan leaders? These are the things we can continue to reflect on as parish leaders. I would like to suggest that we begin by taking Pope Francis' words in Evangelii Gaudium to heart: "Goodness always tends to spread. Every authentic experience of truth as it expands, goodness takes root and develops. If we wish to lead a dignified and fulfilling life, we have to reach out to others and seek their good.
- After the first few years of lay witnesses, ministry fairs, annual renewal and a variety of stewardship formation processes, we find ourselves at a plateau, in which growth slows or stops. Participation in ministry stays about the same, as does financial giving, participation in communal prayer and sacramental celebrations, and efforts to move beyond the current status is stymied and goodness seeks by its very nature to grow within us, and any person who has experienced a profound liberation becomes more sensitive to the needs of others. As it expands, goodness takes root and develops. If we wish to lead a dignified and fulfilling life, we have to reach out to others and seek their good" (EG, 9). May our ministry as stewardship leaders be filled with this goodness of God, reflected in our thoughts, words and actions!

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord and Creator,
 You are the source of wisdom and grace,
 the author of human freedom and creativity.
 We thank you for these gifts,
 and ask that you teach us to be good stewards of our creative spirits.
 Show us how to quiet ourselves, and to learn the art of re-creation, reflection and relaxation so that we might recharge and refill ourselves for the work you have planned for us.
 Help us never to be too busy to pause
 and realize your gracious presence all around us:
 in nature, in other people, in ourselves. Slow us down, Lord, and teach us to be stewards of our time of recreation.
 Amen.
