Next Sunday's Reading

Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading
Genesis 18:1-10

Responsorial Psalm
Psalm 15:2-5

Second Reading
Colossians 1:24-28

Gospel
Luke 10:38-42

FOCUS: We are to see our neighbor in all people, especially the most vulnerable. Our Gospel challenges us with the question: Who is my neighbor? It is a question with profound implications for how we relate to and treat others in our world. As we hear the parable of the Good Samaritan, we are challenged by Christ to treat all with respect and love, especially the poor, the dispossessed, and the most vulnerable.

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14
Moses encourages the people to observe the law of the Lord, telling them it is not too mysterious and remote for [them]. He assures them that the law is already in their mouths and hearts.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20
Paul proclaims Christ as the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37
In response to a question from a scholar of the law on how to inherit eternal life, Jesus tells a parable about a man who fell victim to robbers and the only person who helped him was a Samaritan.

❖ PICTORIALS FROM FR. EDGAR ❖

St. Meinrad Archabbey where I am spending my sabbatical is run by Benedictine monks. So on this feast day of St. Benedict we are celebrating with them with some special solemn services in the Abbey Chapel and a special tour of a nearby Benedictine monastery for women in Ferdinand, Indiana.

Behind me is the Archabbey Chapel where we celebrate the Holy Mass, morning prayers (Lauds), evening prayers (Vespers) and night prayers (Compline). >

< Outside, folks, students and seminarians hold procession in honor of St Benedict.

OUR LADY OF THE MOUNT CEMETERY

This old cemetery was the site where the parish's first church was once located. It is still owned and maintained by Our Lady of the Mount Catholic Church. The last people to be buried there were in the late 1940s, according to the marker dates that could be read. The volunteer cemetery caretaker, Kalolo Tuihalafatai (pictured below), maintains beautifully the old cemetery. He regularly mows the grass, rakes the leaves and rubbish, trims the trees and ensures that the property is secure and safe. These photos were taken by Kalolo on July 3, 2025 after cleaning the cemetery in time to welcome the visiting families on July 4. Thank you, Kalolo!

Join us for a day of joy, unity, and thanksgiving!

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION FOR LEADERS

STEWARDSHIP: GOODNESS ALWAYS SPREADS

by Leisa Anslinger, Recipient of the 2022 ICSC Christian Stewardship Award

About five years into my parish's stewardship journey, we held a special meeting with our pastoral council and stewardship commission. It was an opportunity to look back at where we had been, and to plan for the future. The conversation turned to the misunderstandings that some still had about the spirituality of stewardship, and to the ways we could improve our stewardship education. In the midst of the discussion, one of our long-standing commission members stunned us when he said, "Well, it really isn't as though God earned the money or the resources I have. I earned those. God may have given me the talents with which to do that, but those things that I own are mine." It was at that moment we all realized how far we had to go in spreading the message of stewardship! We who are dedicated to fostering stewardship as a way of life often find ourselves at junctures in our ministry:

- We begin introducing the spirituality of stewardship yet often find that what do we do in such junctures, words fail us as we try to capture the depths of this way of gratitude and generosity.
- We walk the path of stewardship in the parish or diocese for a while, and find the message "sticks" with some, while others seem happily determined to ignore this call. The call to self-giving love is challenging! As individuals and as parish or diocesan leaders? These are the things we can continue to reflect on as parish leaders. I would like to suggest that we begin by taking Pope Francis' words in Evangelii Gaudium to heart: "Goodness always tends to spread. Every authentic experience of truth as it expands, goodness takes root and develops. If we wish to lead a dignified and fulfilling life, we have to reach out to others and seek their good.
- After the first few years of lay witnesses, ministry fairs, annual renewal and a variety of stewardship formation processes, we find ourselves at a plateau, in which growth slows or stops. Participation in ministry stays about the same, as does financial giving, participation in communal prayer and sacramental celebrations, and efforts to move beyond the current status is stymied and goodness seeks by its very nature to grow within us, and any person who has experienced a profound liberation becomes more sensitive to the needs of others. As it expands, goodness takes root and develops. If we wish to lead a dignified and fulfilling life, we have to reach out to others and seek their good" (EG, 9). May our ministry as stewardship leaders be filled with this goodness of God, reflected in our thoughts, words and actions!

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord and Creator,
 You are the source of wisdom and grace,
 the author of human freedom and creativity.
 We thank you for these gifts,
 and ask that you teach us to be good stewards of our creative spirits.
 Show us how to quiet ourselves, and to learn the art of re-creation, reflection and relaxation so that we might recharge and refill ourselves for the work you have planned for us.
 Help us never to be too busy to pause
 and realize your gracious presence all around us:
 in nature, in other people, in ourselves. Slow us down, Lord, and teach us to be stewards of our time of recreation.
 Amen.
