Good News For Today

FOCUS: No servant can serve two masters.

The readings invite us to reflect on our relationship with money and wealth in light of our faith in God. Knowing that the pursuit of wealth can lead us into dishonesty, the Lord invites us to be prudent in our affairs and mindful that ultimately, it is our relationship with God that must be our top priority.

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7 ✠ God cannot forget the sin of those who cheat the poor. The prophet Amos warns those who take advantage of others that the Lord will remember their actions.

Second reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8
✠ St. Paul asks that people should pray for everyone, including rulers and those in authority, for God wishes all to be saved.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13 ✠ Jesus teaches that just as one must be prudent and trustworthy managing worldly affairs, so one must be, and even more so, in service to God. Jesus points out that wealth can be used for good ends as well. He says that we cannot pretend that we don't live in the world with others, so we need to find ways to advance the reign of God using the tools at our disposal.

COMMISSIONING OF CATECHISTS > Congratulations!

On this Catechetical Sunday, within the 9:00 AM Mass, we shall witness the commissioning of the catechists and youth ministers who volunteer and joyfully undertake the ministry of forming our children and the youth in the Christian faith. An orientation meeting for parents and children will be conducted by the catechists after the Mass.

YOUTH MINISTERS: Se'i Ah Kui * Emma Ah Sam * Jon Manongdo * Diena Peterson * Nicole Peterson * Salina Peterson * Christian Sipalay * Feao Sole * Ropati Liua > Youth Coordinator

PARENTS AND GUARDIANS, we urge you to enroll your children for their formation in our Catholic faith. As Christian parents, it is your solemn responsibility to bring them up in the faith thru catechesis and thru your guidance and example. Our caring and willing volunteer catechists are happy to assist you in fulfilling your duty. Your children will learn the basic prayers, the Bible stories and teachings of Jesus, will come close to the Lord by attending the Holy Mass and liturgical services and they will be prepared to receive the initiation sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and First Communion. The higher levels will also undergo Youth leadership formation.

SEPTEMBER: NEW BEGINNINGS IN YOUR PARISH

New Year's resolutions are famously made on January 1 and infamously broken by the end of that month. But for many stewards, the real time of renewal and recommitment comes as we turn the calendar page into September, and the resolutions have a longer and greater impact. Why? Because good Catholic stewards realize that the parish is often times the place where people encounter Christ's presence in their lives, and in the fall, everything kicks into high gear at the parish. Opportunities abound for growth, for giving, for community. It's now that we ponder and make our decisions for how we will make a disciple's response during the coming year through our commitment to the life of our parishes. Here are a few tips for maximizing a grace-filled year:

- Make Mass your top weekend priority, ahead of sports, school activities, or other temptations.
- Consider how best to use your talents in the service of the parish. Pray over the ministry which calls to you the most.
- Serve the poor through activities in your parish, in the spirit of Pope Francis. All parishes have some kind of outreach to the poor.
- Consider taking an adult faith formation class.
- Make plans to attend the ICSC annual conference September 21-24 in Chicago, Illinois. If you can't attend, make sure someone from your parish is going. It's an opportunity to gain a wealth of new ideas, tons of inspiration, and a chance to meet other folks, including the experts, who are dedicated to evangelization and stewardship.
- Visit, or better yet help with, your parish ministry fair. Fun and informative, the fair is a community builder, and a great way to get people to participate.
- Attend back-to-school night and get involved, especially if you have kids in the parish school.
- Visit your child's faith formation class and introduce yourself to the teacher. Let your children know religious education is a priority to you, and be sure to thank in some way the parishioners who give of their time and talent to this ministry.
- Review your financial giving. Were you a faithful giver during the summer? Find out if your parish has online giving, or automatic withdrawal, and sign up so your year-round support helps provide a stable parish income. (ICSC e-bulletin Sept 2025)

May they rest in peace.

Stewardship Prayer

Heavenly Father,

September is a month that offers hope for things to come: our daily life has a new rhythm, there are new beginnings and new encounters, and a new energy is seen in the parish community. In this month of accelerating activities, keep us mindful that we live for Christ and not for ourselves. Give us the strength and the wisdom to be "Doers" of Your Word, and not just listeners; to be good stewards of the Gospel each and every day. In this month of transition help us find a deeper spiritual balance in our lives that takes time for you, listens to the promptings of your Spirit and gives us hope that the body of Christ has well begun the transformation of a troubled world. We ask this through your Son, Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen. (Lifted from ICSC e-Bulletin September 2025)
