WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION OCTOBER 25-26

World Mission Sunday is held every year on the second-to-last Sunday of October. This year it falls on 19 October with the theme of "Missionaries of Hope among the peoples."

Pope Leo XIV calls on every Catholic parish to take part in World Mission Sunday. The generosity of parishioners concretely enables and sustains the good work of missionaries.

The Pope explained, "Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories."

The Pope adds with encouraging words, "As we reflect together on this year's theme and on our baptismal call to be 'missionaries of hope among the people', let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth."

PLEASE GIVE GENEROUSLY TO THE CAUSE OF THE CHURCH MISSION IN THE SPECIAL COLLECTION TODAY.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH

October 2025

RESPECT LIFE MONTH IN OCTOBER

Every October, the Church in the U.S. celebrates Respect Life Month. We reflect on the gift of every human life and how to build a culture that protects life from conception to natural death.

Join thousands of Catholics praying a Respect Life Month novena Wednesday, October 22–Thursday, October 30. Get daily prayers, reflections, and more. Sign up at respectlife.org/celebrate.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOOD NEWS FOR TODAY

FOCUS: The Lord Hears the Cry of the Poor

God hears the cry of the faithful, especially the oppressed and lowly, responding with justice and mercy. Paul's life embodies this truth — poured out in steadfast faith and perseverance. Even when abandoned, he finds strength in God, trusting not in worldly reward but in the eternal crown of righteousness promised to all who remain faithful. †

FIRST READING: SIRACH 35: 12-14, 16-18 †

God is just and attentive to those who cry out in faith. Though impartial, He listens closely to the oppressed, the orphan, and the widow. The humble prayer of the lowly reaches heaven, for the Lord never delays in responding with justice and mercy. †

SECOND READING: 2 TIMOTHY 4: 6-18, 16-18

Paul's words reveal a life fully offered to God — poured out in faithful service and perseverance. Even when abandoned by others, he finds strength in the Lord, trusting in divine justice and mercy. His hope rests not in earthly reward but in the eternal crown promised to all who remain steadfast in faith. †

GOSPEL: LUKE 18: 9-14 † True prayer flows from humility, not pride. The Pharisee trusted in his own goodness, while the tax collector relied on God's mercy. Jesus reminds us that righteousness comes not from boasting of our deeds, but from a humble heart that recognizes its need for God's grace. †

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

It has been a tradition that we dedicate the whole month of November in praying for and honoring our beloved dead...A Book of Remembrance will be made available for anyone to write the names of their deceased loved ones. You can also submit photos of the deceased and we'll post or hang them in a decorated board or tree. We also encourage you to offer Masses or light candles for them and visit their graves whenever possible. This is in keeping with the doctrine of Communion of the Saints. As we pray for the dead, they also pray for us the living.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious and Loving God, We give you thanks for this time of year; a time of transformation that reveals the awe-inspiring gift of your creation. Teach us how to be good stewards of all the gifts you have given us; and show us how we may share those gifts generously, especially with those most in need of your loving care. Give us the strength to be good stewards of the Gospel, to love others as we love ourselves, and to follow in your Son's footsteps, until we find our way home to you. We pray this through your Son, Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewardship and the Family

We refer to the family as the “domestic Church.” It is a phrase the Second Vatican Council brought forth from the writings of the early Church fathers and describes family life as the center of Catholic spirituality and faith. Those of us who live in a modern family, though, can attest to the incredible challenges of creating a family life that fully lives up to that image of “domestic Church” especially in the autumn of each year.

Busy schedules can make family members feel as though they live as ships passing in the night. Job demands, class schedules, school events, church groups, business trips, commute times, sports – the list goes on. Experts tell us the family dinner, a nightly event years ago, is an increasingly rare occurrence, and even when families are together under one roof, smart phones, televisions, and every imaginable screen demanding their attention keep them isolated from each other in the same house, even the same room.

What can we do to make sacred the “domestic Church” within our homes? What can we do to exercise better stewardship of our families? How about starting with the family meal? Schedule a big breakfast or brunch on Sunday after Mass. The table celebration could include everyone's favorite food. Make it a family event from beginning through clean-up. Keep a large, visible calendar on which everyone's schedule is noted, so that a family dinner can be planned and prioritized. That meal should be a social occasion, not the time to check if Bobby passed his science test or scold Suzy because she wouldn't get out of bed that morning. It is a time for pleasant conversation, no electronic devices permitted. And don't worry if it's not roast beef – pizza out of a box and a salad can be just as fun.

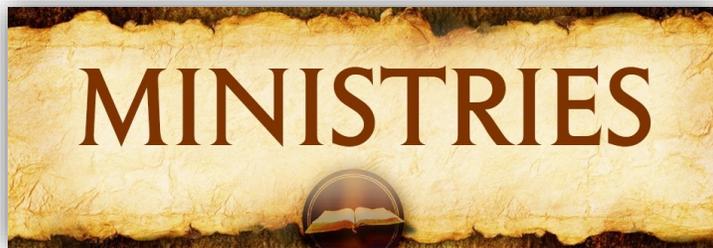

Then, create a plan to work on family prayer time. Besides going to Sunday Mass together, how about a time in the evening when everyone stops what they're doing and gathers for just a few moments before bedtime for prayer? Perhaps use commute times – the trip to the soccer field or the morning drive to school – to share a brief and heartfelt prayer with your children. Do your children see you pray with Scripture? Let children see you make prayer a priority. Saint John Paul II stressed the importance of prayer as a family. “Prayer makes the Son of God present among us,” he wrote.

What else might you do to elevate the sacredness of your own domestic Church? Do your children see you honor special time with your spouse? Do you make quality time with each child individually? Do you listen to them when they speak, or are you checking your mobile phone texts as they talk? Communicate the idea that family comes first and they will catch on. As a steward, prioritize your own sense of family stewardship. If our children grow up with the idea that “church” is indelibly linked to “family,” their faith will grow stronger.

THANK YOU LETTER FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES

Thank you for your parish gift of $1,247.62 received on 9/19/2025 in support of Catholic Charities Sunday. Your partnership helps those in our community with the greatest need in countless ways, such as with housing assistance for families and individuals, supporting foster youth, providing mental health counseling, keeping seniors healthy and active, and much more.

Together we continue the ministry of Jesus in serving his people in need. We give thanks for friends like you who help us to empower and improve the lives of our brothers and sisters.

OLM HOLY ROSARY RELAY

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL WHO JOINED AND COMPLETED THE SIX-HOUR ROSARY RELAY AT OLM CHURCH!

Fr. Edgar opened the Rosary Relay at 12:00 noon with Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. This set the spirit-filled mood for the start of the Rosary Relay. The relay concluded with the solemn Benediction at 6:00 PM.

Thank you to the parish councils, committees, ministries and organizations for leading and participating at your designated hour. Some of you remained and participated in the other hours. A special thank you to Gloria Rodriguez who selected and led the singing of Marian hymns.

We hope that our prayers and meditations on the mysteries of the holy rosary with the Blessed Mother brought us closer to her Son, Jesus Christ, present in the Blessed Sacrament. It is in keeping with the prayer of Padre Pio: "Stay with me, Lord for I desire to love You ever more, and to be in Your company always."

Let us continue to pray the Holy Rosary throughout the month of October and every day thereafter.

Thank you, everyone and God bless you and your families,

Fran Kovaloff
Rosary Relay Coordinator
