Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Let's Celebrate!

ALL SAINTS' DAY & ALL SOULS' DAY

November 2, 2025

NOVEMBER 1 ✠ THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

All Saints Day is dear to the hearts of the faithful, for it gives us a glimpse of God's promise of eternal life for all who put their hope in the Lord. On this day and the next we celebrate the so-called Communion of Saints comprising of all the baptized on earth (called the Church Militant), the souls in purgatory (Church Suffering) and saints already in heaven (Church Triumphant).

All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. On All Saints Day we honor the memory of the countless known and unknown, uncanonized saints who have followed the Lord Jesus on the way to the Cross and share in God's Heavenly glory as a reward for their Faith.

The saints are our role models who teach us by their lives that Christ's holy life of love, mercy, and unconditional forgiveness can and should be lived, with God's grace, by ordinary people from all walks of life and at all times. They are our Heavenly mediators who intercede for us before God who make them his instruments and agents to work miracles.

NOVEMBER 2 † ALL SOULS' DAY

We remember those who have gone before us in the hope of the Resurrection. We pray for them and seek God's consolation in our time of grief and sense of loss. In our prayers and in the Holy Mass we support one another in spirit and ask God to welcome our deceased loved ones into his kingdom of heaven.

As has been our tradition, we dedicate the whole month of November in praying for and honoring our beloved dead. We used to have a Book of Remembrance to inscribe the names of our deceased loved ones. Now we have a Memorial Tree by the sanctuary where we can hang their names written in cruciform cards or photos wrapped in plastic materials. We then pray for them and bless them in every Mass. We are also encouraged to make Mass offerings on their behalf or light candles for them and visit and decorate their graves whenever possible with flowers. As we pray for the dead, they also pray for us the living. This is in keeping with the doctrine of Communion of the Saints.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

MAHALO FROM THE WORLD MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

With your monetary support and participation in the mission of the church we realize this year's theme. "Missionaries of Hope among the peoples." The generosity of parishioners concretely enables and sustains the good work of missionaries. As Pope Leo XIV explained, "Your prayers, your support will help spread the Gospel, provide for pastoral and catechetical programs, help to build new churches, and care for the health and educational needs of our brothers and sisters in mission territories... Let us commit ourselves anew to the sweet and joyful task of bringing Christ Jesus our Hope to the ends of the earth."

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROUS GIVING TO THE CAUSE OF THE CHURCH MISSION IN THE WORLD.
GOD BLESS YOU!

THE COMMEMORATION OF ALL THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

GOOD NEWS FOR TODAY

FOCUS: God's Saving Grace

Through Christ's death and resurrection, God promises new life to all who believe. Just as death entered through Adam, life and resurrection come through Jesus. In Him, we find hope beyond the grave and the assurance that those who have fallen asleep in faith will be raised to eternal life. †

FIRST READING: WISDOM 3: 1-9 †

God reminds us that the souls of the faithful rest securely in God's hands. Though their suffering may seem like loss to the world, in truth, they share in eternal peace and glory. God tests and refines them like gold, rewarding their faith and trust with immortality. His grace, mercy, and love embrace all who remain steadfast in Him. √

SECOND READING: ROMANS 5: 5-11

Know and understand the depth of God's love and mercy. Even when we were sinners and helpless, Christ willingly died for us, proving that divine love is unconditional and redemptive. Through His sacrifice, we are justified, reconciled, and given hope that never disappoints because it is rooted in the Holy Spirit's presence within us. Our response is to rejoice in this reconciliation and live in gratitude for the saving grace of Christ's life. †

GOSPEL: JOHN 6: 37-40 †

Jesus reveals the Father's merciful will — that none who come to Him in faith will be lost. He assures us of God's unwavering desire to give eternal life to all who believe in the Son. Christ's mission is one of welcome, preservation, and resurrection, reminding us that true hope and life are found in trusting and following Him. grace. †

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious and Loving God, We give you thanks for this time of year; a time of transformation that reveals the awe-inspiring gift of your creation. Teach us how to be good stewards of all the gifts you have given us; and show us how we may share those gifts generously, especially with those most in need of your loving care. Give us the strength to be good stewards of the Gospel, to love others as we love ourselves, and to follow in your Son's footsteps, until we find our way home to you. We pray this through your Son, Jesus Christ, Who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewardship and the Family

We refer to the family as the "domestic Church." It is a phrase the Second Vatican Council brought forth from the writings of the early Church fathers and describes family life as the center of Catholic spirituality and faith. Those of us who live in a modern family, though, can attest to the incredible challenges of creating a family life that fully lives up to that image of "domestic Church" especially in the autumn of each year.

Busy schedules can make family members feel as though they live as ships passing in the night. Job demands, class schedules, school events, church groups, business trips, commute times, sports – the list goes on. Experts tell us the family dinner, a nightly event years ago, is an increasingly rare occurrence, and even when families are together under one roof, smart phones, televisions, and every imaginable screen demanding their attention keep them isolated from each other in the same house, even the same room.

What can we do to make sacred the "domestic Church" within our homes? What can we do to exercise better stewardship of our families? How about starting with the family meal? Schedule a big breakfast or brunch on Sunday after Mass. The table celebration could include everyone's favorite food. Make it a family event from beginning through clean-up. Keep a large, visible calendar on which everyone's schedule is noted, so that a family dinner can be planned and prioritized. That meal should be a social occasion, not the time to check if Bobby passed his science test or scold Suzy because she wouldn't get out of bed that morning. It is a time for pleasant conversation, no electronic devices permitted. And don't worry if it's not roast beef – pizza out of a box and a salad can be just as fun.

Then, create a plan to work on family prayer time. Besides going to Sunday Mass together, how about a time in the evening when everyone stops what they're doing and gathers for just a few moments before bedtime for prayer? Perhaps use commute times – the trip to the soccer field or the morning drive to school – to share a brief and heartfelt prayer with your children. Do your children see you pray with Scripture? Let children see you make prayer a priority. Saint John Paul II stressed the importance of prayer as a family. "Prayer makes the Son of God present among us," he wrote.

What else might you do to elevate the sacredness of your own domestic Church? Do your children see you honor special time with your spouse? Do you make quality time with each child individually? Do you listen to them when they speak, or are you checking your mobile phone texts as they talk? Communicate the idea that family comes first and they will catch on. As a steward, prioritize your own sense of family stewardship. If our children grow up with the idea that "church" is indelibly linked to "family," their faith will grow stronger.

FACILITIES REPAIR & MAINTENANCE

Up high on the rectory roof top, Adriano Daligcon singlehandedly sealed the leaks and replaced the broken shingles due to wear and tear by the elements. We are most grateful for sharing his time, expertise and efforts including his high tech tools to maintain the integrity of our structures.

STEWARD IN ACTION

After time out from her job, parishioner Ador Padilla drove straight to the Church to clean and refresh the restrooms by the Church and the Hall. We are still depending on willing and joyful volunteers to do some cleaning and maintaining order of our facilities as we await for the approval by the Diocese of a new applicant for the groundskeeper and custodian job.
