LET'S CELEBRATE THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD January 11, 2026

FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Jesus' baptism by John was a mystical experience that Jesus felt deep within his soul at the crucial turning point of his life. The presence of the Triune God at this baptism, reveals Jesus' true identity and mission. The opening of the Heavens with Holy Spirit, descending as a dove upon Jesus, and the Voice declaring of him, "This is My beloved Son with Whom I am well pleased," are God's revelation to mankind of the Mystery that He is Triune. The Heavens' opening also indicates that this was a moment of God's powerful intervention in human history and in the life of His Son. This is the day for us to remember the graces we have received in Baptism and to renew our Baptismal promises, consecrating ourselves to the Holy Trinity and "rejecting Satan and all his empty promises." Let us ask Our Lord today to make us faithful to our Baptismal promises. Let us thank Him for the privilege of being joined to His mission of preaching the "Good News" by our transparent Christian lives of love, mercy, service and forgiveness.

TEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Stewardship: Responding to the Call of Jesus Christ
by Leisa Anslinger

“Once one chooses to become a disciple of Jesus Christ, stewardship is not an option.” This quote from Bishop John McRaith, which opens the tenth anniversary edition of the U.S. bishops’ pastoral letter, Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response, captures the profound call to be formed and to form others as good and faithful stewards. Christian stewardship, as practiced in the Catholic tradition, is a particularly meaningful way to live our lives as disciples. This year is the 34th anniversary of the publication of the pastoral letter, and we who are stewardship leaders still have much to learn from it.

Thirty-four years is a long time. And yet, in the context of the life of the Church, it is the blink of an eye. In the past 34 years, the pastoral letter has guided leaders in their formation as stewards and in their efforts to bring a spirituality of stewardship to their dioceses and parishes. The letter grounds us in the theology of stewardship, and at the same time, offers essential wisdom and guidance for all who hope to form people in this meaningful way of life. In this new year, it is good for us to read and reflect on the letter, again or for the first time, taking into consideration the implications for all who are dedicated to forming people as disciples who embrace living and growing as stewards. We will focus on these implications in the coming months.

Some years ago, I had the blessing of an extended email exchange with Bishop Sylvester Ryan about stewardship and the bishops’ pastoral letter. He wrote in one email,

I think it is critical for us to emphasize that the title of the pastoral letter is Stewardship: A Disciple’s Response. The spirituality of the pastoral letter is that we become disciples learning at the feet of Jesus and responding to Jesus who sends us forth to proclaim the Kingdom!

This is our beginning point for reflection: How does stewardship influence the way in which you live as a disciple of Jesus Christ? How do you form your community to respond to Christ’s call to proclaim the Kingdom and to grow as good stewards?

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

Good and gracious God,
a new year of grace is upon us,
giving us impressions of crisp beginnings new goals, a fresh sense of hope.

Though we cling to our own expectations for the year
ahead,

we know you alone are the sovereign of our future,
Lord of our lives,
and the source of whatever good we may do.

We thank you, O Lord, for the gift of the days and weeks you have entrusted to us.

Teach us to be good stewards of our time ahead,
that we go about our days keeping you at the center of our lives.

In the midst of our daily pursuits and activities,
focus our eyes on the needs of others;
help us respond with compassion to the poor;
and open our hearts to a suffering world.

We ask for a year of peace,
a year that brings an end to hatred and strife,
and a year where we find a deeper joy that can only be found in you.

We ask this through Christ your Son
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.
