LET'S CELEBRATE THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD January 4, 2026

FEAST OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

*We celebrate Epiphany Sunday to hear how God's very self is revealed to people of all nations through the Incarnation of His Son Jesus. This revelation is made to foreigners, specifically, the Magi from the East who recognized the Messiah and paid him homage. The joy of today's event is reflected in the readings. The prophet Isaiah sings of the promise to Jerusalem receiving people and treasures from all nations. St. Paul proclaims that in Christ Jesus we are all members of the same body, that Jews and Gentiles alike have received the promise of salvation. The Gospel tells of the far away magi who follow the star to Bethlehem and rejoice at the sight of the newborn king.

Like the magi, we have searched for Christ and found him in the living and practice of our faith. Let us allow the sacred readings to broaden our horizons so that we see God everywhere and learn to show God to everyone around us.

*LITURGICAL NOTES:

>The Proclamation of the Paschal Dates is done during the Masses today. The formal, chanted Announcement of Easter and the Moveable Feasts is a revived medieval custom, which in a sense, is a consecration of the new year.

>The figures of the magi are added or featured prominently in the nativity scene and plentiful use of incense at all Masses is in recognition of their gifts to the newborn Child.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Epiphany: To Find Our Meaning in Christ

On the weekend of January 3 and 4, 2026 we celebrate the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Epiphany! What a wonderful word. Even its secular definition is thrilling: “a sudden realization about the nature or meaning of something.” It brings all sorts of images to mind: a light bulb suddenly turning on, shed ding brilliant illumination; a revelation that brings a gasp; an idea so vivid we pause and give thanks; a truth so powerful we fall to our knees. The feast of the Epiphany is all of those things and more. We celebrate the mysterious appearance at Jesus’ birth place of three men from the East. They had set off on a most quixotic journey, seeking what they would find at the end of a star’s dazzling rays. What, we wonder, did they make of the epiphany with which their journey ended? Did they spend the rest of their lives trying to discern what their discovery of the baby meant, or did the Christ Child gift them with “a sudden realization” of His nature?

What more could they – or we – want of a life’s journey, than to find, in our epiphany, the Christ waiting for us? The twelve days of Christmas have led us to this place, where Gentiles from afar have discovered Christ, thereby revealing that He came for everyone, for each one of us throughout history, and not just for the Jewish people to whom he was born. The feast of Epiphany brings us to the last week of our liturgical celebration of Christmas. But for the Christian steward, Epiphany is not an end but a beginning. This feast reminds us that the New Year beckons us to openness about the epiphanies to which God leads us if we but keep an open, prayerful heart, a heart full of deep, awed gratitude. Let us pray never to become too jaded, too full of certainty, too wrapped up in the routine of life to be asleep at the time of epiphany. If we could resolve to keep only one New Year’s Resolution, let it be this: to pay attention to the epiphanies God places before us.

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR

Good and gracious God, a new year of grace is upon us, giving us impressions of crisp beginnings new goals, a fresh sense of hope. Though we cling to our own expectations for the year ahead, we know you alone are the sovereign of our future, Lord of our lives, and the source of whatever good we may do. We thank you, O Lord, for the gift of the days and weeks you have entrusted to us. Teach us to be good stewards of our time ahead, that we go about our days keeping you at the center of our lives. In the midst of our daily pursuits and activities, focus our eyes on the needs of others; help us respond with compassion to the poor; and open our hearts to a suffering world. We ask for a year of peace, a year that brings an end to hatred and strife, and a year where we find a deeper joy that can only be found in you. We ask this through Christ your Son who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, One God, forever and ever. Amen.
