Fifth Sunday of Easter

FLORES DE MAYO

Flores de Mayo or Mayflower Festival is a Filipino spiritual tradition of honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary during the month of May. It consists of reciting the holy rosary, offering flowers to and crowning the Marian image, holding solemn procession and other pious devotions. At OLM, the Filipino Catholic Club had been spearheading the tradition. From the First Sunday of May to the last, the people are bringing up the acrostics

AVE MARIA, offer flowers, crown the Marian image and pray the rosary. While the country would be celebrating May Day, Mother's Day, Memorial Day on this month, we honor the Blessed Virgin Mary as Christ's Mother and our heavenly Mother too. Mary is our powerful intercessor in heaven. Certainly, this tradition has huge merits that it is worth doing warmly, affectionately, beautifully and more so when there is full participation by all. Young and old, men and women, boys and girls, all parishioners, let us all come and be blessed as we offer flowers, pray the rosary and celebrate the Holy Mass. May we all be open to God's invitation in our own lives!

A STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

For May

Gracious and Loving God,
When your Spirit descended upon the apostles at Pentecost, they spoke the languages of those who came to hear their testimony.

They proclaimed a new covenant in Christ Jesus, sanctified by his blood, bound by the Holy Spirit, and sealed in the waters of Baptism.

We give you thanks and praise for releasing your Spirit upon us; and in these anxious times pray that it will break through the many barriers that divide people.

Let your Spirit open our eyes as a communion of faith to your ongoing presence among us, so we can recognize you when we serve one another.

Let your Spirit open our minds so that we may gain the wisdom to work together to show love for our neighbors, and unite our talents to build a better, safer world.

And let your Spirit open our hearts so that together we can live more fully in Christ, shine his light of mercy and hope and prepare for the day of his glorious return.

We pray this through your son, Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

State Officially Establishes “Brother Joseph Dutton Day”

Hawaii Catholic Herald April 27, 2026

By Celia K. Downes

The State of Hawaii has officially recognized Servant of God Joseph Dutton, the layman who worked alongside Father Damien de Veuster in Kalaupapa and then spent decades ministering to Hansen’s disease patients on the remote Molokai peninsula, by designating April 27 as “Brother Joseph Dutton Day.”

Gov. Josh Green signed Senate Bill 2256 into law on Thursday, April 23, after praising Dutton as a “hero” who devoted his life to those diagnosed with Hansen’s disease (also called leprosy).

Bishop Larry Silva and officials with the Joseph Dutton Guild, a nonprofit organization founded in 2015 to promote Dutton’s sainthood cause, were among those present at the state Capitol for the signing.

Also present were lawmakers including state Senate President Ron Kouchi; Sen. Lynn DeCoite, whose district comprises Molokai, East and Upcountry Maui, Lanai, Kahoolawe and Molokini; and Rep. Jeanne Kapela, whose district comprises East Hawaii island communities.

DeCoite and Kapela were responsible for championing the measure in their respective chambers this year, finally succeeding in getting the bill passed after previous attempts failed.

“Brother Dutton did not seek recognition at all,” DeCoite said in remarks before the bill signing. “He simply just showed up. Through his actions he brought dignity, comfort and hope to those who had been isolated from their families and communities.”

Dutton joins Kalaupapa’s two saints, St. Damien and St. Marianne Cope, with official days of recognition in Hawaii. St. Damien de Veuster Day is May 10 (marking the day he arrived on Kalaupapa), and St. Marianne Cope Day is Jan. 23 (the day she was born). Dutton’s day also marks the day he was born.

To watch the ceremony, visit Green’s Facebook page at www.facebook.com/GovernorHawaii/live_videos.

ABOUT BROTHER JOSEPH DUTTON

Dutton was born Ira Barnes Dutton on April 27, 1843, in Vermont, and was raised in Wisconsin. After a turbulent life that included Civil War service, a failed marriage, alcoholism and other challenges, he converted to Catholicism in 1883 and chose the baptismal name Joseph. Three years later, inspired by Father Damien’s work, Dutton arrived in Hawaii and never left — devoting the rest of his life to serving the patients in Kalaupapa. Affectionately called “Brother” by Father Damien, Dutton died in Honolulu in 1931. His grave sits near St. Damien’s grave outside St. Philomena Church in Kalaupapa.

SUPPORT THE CAUSE FOR CANONIZATION OF JOSEPH DUTTON

Help advance the Cause for Canonization for Joseph Dutton. Most famous for his volunteer efforts on the island of Molokai (Hawaii) caring for people with Hansen’s disease for nearly 44 years. A devout Catholic, Joseph Dutton had left all to serve the people in Molokai after hearing about Saint Damien’s work there.

STEWARDSHIP OF OTHERS; OUR LIFE AS SERVANT LEADERS

By Leisa Anslinger

During the Easter season we immerse ourselves in the wonder of Jesus’ resurrection and the story of the early Church through our Sunday liturgies. Each year, I look forward to hearing from the Acts of the Apostles during this season. I am inspired by the faith and courage of the apostles and those who came to believe in Jesus Christ as a result of their witness and stewardship of their community of faith. I am also encouraged when reading the story of the development of the early communities of believers – not only did they face immense challenges from the Roman and Jewish authorities, they were often challenged from within, as they figured out what it meant to be Christians in community with one another. In his book on the gift of administration, Reverend Donald Senior, biblical scholar and former president of Catholic Theological Union, writes of the ways leadership emerged in the early Church.

He writes:

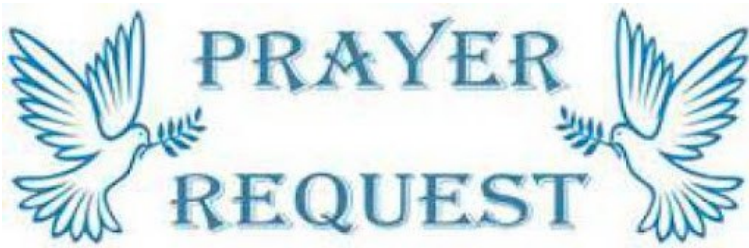

“The inspiration for all leadership in the New Testament is rooted in the example of Jesus. His qualities of compassion, integrity, and selfless service in the carrying out of his mission are reflected in the virtues lifted up in the examples of early community leaders such as Peter, Barnabas, Paul, and Priscilla and Aquila. The fundamental responsibility of New Testament leaders is to foster the common good of the community – and here, too, the example of Jesus is paramount. Jesus the healer and teacher was committed to the restoration and well-being of God’s people. So, too, the charismatic leadership of Paul and the more administrative type of leadership exercised by Peter, Barnabas, Phoebe, and Priscilla and Aquila and many others were directed to building up the Body of Christ.”

Father Senior goes on to summarize this form of leadership, modeled by Jesus himself, as “servant leadership” (The Gift of Administration: New Testament Foundations for the Vocation of Administrative Service, Liturgical Press, 2016).

As we hear the story of the early Church this Easter season, let us reflect on our stewardship of others in our family of faith, our role as servant leaders: How do we continue the mission of Jesus with compassion, integrity and selfless service? How do we build up the Body of Christ as a community of disciples and stewards.
